Technology And Society A Canadian Perspective:

Technology and Society John Goyder, 1997 Technology and Society is a thoroughly researched insightful sociological analysis of complex issues in the technology society relationship David Long The King s University College Technology and Society: A Philosophical Guide James Gerrie, 2018-05-30 Technology and Society provides an up to date introduction to the basic issues that have come to define the philosophy of technology What is technology Does technology control our lives What is technology s relation to ethics How does technology influence us Is the widespread belief in technological progress justified Later sections of the book examine the application of philosophy of technology to social issues such as climate change urban sprawl and automation Major issues and arguments are presented in an accessible and non technical fashion giving the reader a firm foundation in the field Technology and Culture Allen W. Batteau, 2009-06-09 Technology and Culture provides a comprehensive overview of anthropological and other theories examining the place of technology in culture and the consequences of technology for cultural evolution The book develops and contrasts anthropological discourse of technology and culture with humanistic and managerial views It uses core anthropological concepts including adaptation evolution totemic identity and collective representations to locate a broad variety of technologies ancient and modern in a context of shared understandings and misunderstandings The author draws on his own experience as an auto mechanic computer programmer ethnographer and aircraft pilot to demonstrate that technologies are cultural creations encoding and accelerating the dreams and delusions of the societies that produce them Global Media Convergence and Cultural Transformation: Emerging Social Patterns and Characteristics Jin, Dal Yong, 2010-11-30 This book aims to engage the complex relationship between technology culture and socio economic elements by exploring it in a transnational yet contextually grounded framework exploring diverse perspectives and approaches from political economy to cultural studies and from policy studies to ethnography Provided by publisher Canadian Perspectives on Law and Society W. Wesley Pue, Barry Wright, 1988-01-01 A Vision for Science Education Roger Cross, 2004-08-02 One of the most important and consistent voices in the reform of science education over the last thirty years has been that of Peter Fensham His vision of a democratic and socially responsible science education for all has inspired change in schools and colleges throughout the world Often moving against the tide Fensham travelled the world to promote his radical ideology He was appointed Australia s first Professor of Science Education and was later made a Member of the Order of Australia in recognition of his work in this new and emerging field of study In this unique book leading science educators from around the world examine and discuss Fensham s key ideas Each describes how his arguments proposals and recommendations have affected their own practice and extend and modify his message in light of current issues and trends in science education The result is a vision for the future of science teaching internationally Academics researchers and practitioners in science education around the world will find this book a fascinating insight into the life and work of one of the foremost pioneers in science education The book will also make inspiring reading for postgraduate students of science education Science, Technology, and Society David D. Kumar, Daryl E. Chubin, 2012-12-06 David D Kumar and Daryl E Chubin We live in an information age Technology abounds information technology communication technology learning technology As a once popular song went Something is happening here but it is just not exactly clear The world appears to be a smaller less remote place We live in it but we are not necessarily closely tied to it We lack a satisfactory understanding of it So we are left with a paradox In an information age information alone will neither inform nor improve us as citizens nor our democracy society or institutions No improvement will take some effort It is a heavy burden to be reflective indeed analytical and disciplined but only constructively constrained by different perspectives The science based technology that makes for the complexity controversy and uncertainty of life sows the seeds of understanding in Science Technology and Society STS as it is known encompasses a hybrid area of scholarship now nearly three decades old As D R Sarewitz a former geologist now congressional staffer and an author put it After all the important and often controversial policy dilemmas posed by issues such as nuclear energy toxic waste disposal global climate change or biotechnology cannot be resolved by authoritative scientific knowledge instead they must involve a balancing of technical considerations with other criteria that are explicitly nonscientific ethics aesthetics equity ideology Trade offs must be made in light of inevitable uncertainties Sarewitz 1996 p 182 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Using Learning Technologies Elizabeth J. Burge, Margaret Haughey, 2002-11-01 This collection of first hand accounts from experienced and accomplished learning technology practitioners highlights issues in using learning technologies for flexible distance and open learning Drawing on their own experience the authors identify and explore the most practical and complex issues faced and reflect upon the lessons learned The definition of learning technologies is broad encompassing not only the tools print audio video online applications but their creative and informed application and social effects Experiences from eight different countries are presented while the themes addressed include policy development teaching skills learner guidance evaluation and reflective practice Often busy practitioners argue that they do not have time for reflection but that they do have time to swap stories with colleagues Using Learning Technologies promotes such engagement through a broad range of first hand accounts of facing the challenges entailed in using learning technologies The stories recounted here speak directly to practitioners researchers and administrators provide a model for reflection and offer practical guidelines for comparison with the reader's own experience Macromarketing: A Canadian Perspective Donald N. Thompson, Patricia Simmie, Louise Heslop, Stanley J. Shapiro, 2011-10-15
