Blair, 2001 This is the story of Ted Serong who at the request of the CIA was in charge of the first Australian contingent in Vietnam and remained there until the end of the war Ted Serong Anne E. Blair, 2002 Ted Serong was one of the most original and influential of the Australian Army's planners in the post war period He re established the jungle training centre at Canungra in the 1950s and developed the Australian Army doctrine of counter insurgency warfare Yet the extent of his achievements is little known in the country of his birth This major new biography by Anne Blair explores the fascinating career of the Australian Army's most mysterious commander The Last Brahmin Luke A. Nichter, 2020-09-22 The first biography of a man who was at the center of American foreign policy for a generation Few have ever enjoyed the degree of foreign policy influence and versatility that Henry Cabot Lodge Jr did in the postwar era perhaps only George Marshall Henry Kissinger and James Baker Lodge however had the distinction of wielding that influence under presidents of both parties For three decades he was at the center of American foreign policy serving as advisor to five presidents from Dwight Eisenhower to Gerald Ford and as ambassador to the United Nations Vietnam West Germany and the Vatican Lodge's political influence was immense He was the first person in 1943 to see Eisenhower as a potential president he entered Eisenhower in the 1952 New Hampshire primary without the candidate's knowledge crafted his political positions and managed his campaign As UN ambassador in the 1950s Lodge was effectively a second secretary of state In the 1960s he was called twice by John F Kennedy and by Lyndon Johnson to serve in the toughest position in the State Department's portfolio as ambassador to Vietnam In the 1970s he paved the way for permanent American ties with the Holy See Over his career beginning with his arrival in the U S Senate at age thirty four in 1937 when there were just seventeen Republican senators he did more than anyone else to transform the Republican Party from a regional isolationist party into the nation's dominant force in foreign policy a position it held from Eisenhower's time until the twenty first century In this book historian Luke A Nichter gives us a compelling narrative of Lodge's extraordinary and consequential life Lodge was among the last of the well heeled Eastern Establishment Republicans who put duty over partisanship and saw themselves as the hereditary captains of the American state Unlike many who reach his position Lodge took his secrets to the grave including some that revealed here for the first time will force historians to rethink their understanding of America's involvement in the Vietnam War Tiger Man of Vietnam Frank Walker, 2011-05-14 In 1963 28 year old Australian Captain Barry Petersen was sent to Vietnam as part of the 30 man Australian Training Team two years before the first official Australian troops arrived Seconded to the CIA he was sent to the remote Central Highlands to build an anti communist guerrilla force among the indigenous Montagnard people He was sent to Encyclopedia of Insurgency and Counterinsurgency Spencer C.
