

Slaves to the second
Time trapping all thought
Slower than the silting of sand
Faster than the fester of rot

Reflexive grins for show
But once alone, tears flow
Pretend to be happy to leave
Fail this and get buckled sleeves

Messages of hope scrawled
Nail marks carved on the same walls
Ancient echoes of those who bawled
Drowned out by the cries of those who fall and fell
Speakers shredding like the shrillest of bells

Muffled shuffles of patients drugged
Accompany the shrieks of sanity lost
Suicidal mentation means they won't not accost
Anything to save us from being snug

They pull my teeth and replace them with pills
They take my tears until they've had their fill
I take out tendons to make room for chains
Medications barely make sure I stay tame

I beat my heart to keep it submissive
But I can't help my eyes from running away
Doctors dutifully don dismissive dispositions
I scream for clemency to get outcast anyway

American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07 The Canadian Forum ,1986-04 Brother-Souls Ann Charters, Samuel Charters, 2010-09-27 John Clellon Holmes met Jack Kerouac on a hot New York City weekend in 1948 and until the end of Kerouac's life they were in Holmes's words Brother Souls Both were neophyte novelists hungry for literary fame but just as hungry to find a new way of responding to their experiences in a postwar American society that for them had lost its direction Late one night as they sat talking Kerouac spontaneously created the term Beat Generation to describe this new attitude they felt stirring around them Brother Souls John Clellon Holmes Jack Kerouac and the Beat Generation is the remarkable chronicle of this cornerstone friendship and the life of John Clellon Holmes From 1948 to 1951 when Kerouac's wanderings took him back to New York he and Holmes met almost daily Struggling to find a form for the novel he intended to write Kerouac climbed the stairs to the apartment in midtown Manhattan where Holmes lived with his wife to read the pages of Holmes's manuscript for the novel Go as they left the typewriter With the pages of Holmes's final chapter still in his mind he was at last able to crack his own writing dilemma In a burst of creation in April 1951 he drew all the materials he had been gathering into the scroll manuscript of On the Road Biographer Ann Charters was close to John Clellon Holmes for more than a decade At his death in 1988 she was one of a handful of scholars allowed access to the voluminous archive of letters journals and manuscripts Holmes had been keeping for twenty five years In that mass of material waited an untold story These two ambitious writers Holmes and Kerouac shared days and nights arguing over what writing should be wandering from one explosive party to the next and hanging on the new sounds of bebop Through the pages of Holmes's journals often written the morning after the events they recount Charters discovered and mined an unparalleled trove describing the seminal figures of the Beat Generation Holmes Kerouac Neal Cassady Allen Ginsberg William Burroughs Gregory Corso and their friends and lovers One Step From Insanity Lady Charmaine Day, 2008-02-06 People often say I almost lost my mind or I'm about to lose my mind You make me feel crazy or insane Yet few people have actually lost it went crazy What does an insane person think about What do you contemplate as your mind recovers from being insane what thoughts flow through it These are the actual words that I wrote while insane Welcome to the inside of my brain Letters to Gisèle Paul

Celan, 2025-02-25 Insightful and provocative letters by a great twentieth century poet to his artist wife about life and revealingly his own writing An intimate look at this canonical poet's process mental health and quotidian moments during the early 1950s One of the most significant European poets of the twentieth century Paul Celan came from an Eastern European Jewish family and lost his parents to the death camps of World War II Transplanted to Paris he produced a body of work that was an ongoing confrontation with that history of loss and with the German language His poems anguished and unsleeping have by now been translated into many languages becoming a touchstone for poets writers and philosophers Letters to Gisèle presents the letters Celan wrote to his wife the French visual artist Gisèle Celan Lestrange over the course of close to twenty years along with letters to the couple's son Eric and letters from Gisèle to Paul They provide an intimate view of his literary career and troubled life which was marked by repeated stays in psychiatric clinics They also provide an unparalleled glimpse into Celan's poetic workshop including his own word for word renderings from German into French of more than a dozen of his poems These he addressed to Gisèle as an ongoing informal German lesson They figure too as messages from the heart Presented here trilingually these overlapping versions of Celan's poems open up new dimensions of his famously hermetic poetry as dazzling as it is dark This edition includes some poems in the original German and Celan's own translations of them
