Gunn,2010-12-18 East Timor also known as Timor Leste comprises the eastern half of the island of Timor located at the eastern end of the Indonesian archipelago East Timor was among the last of colonial territories to become independent and it actually had to be liberated twice First after more than four centuries of Portuguese colonial rule it achieved independence in 1975 only to be invaded and occupied by Indonesia After a blood soaked occupation of 24 years and following intense international pressure the Jakarta regime only grudgingly allowed East Timor to form a nation of its own in 1999 Since then the new state has faced further armed clashes and is only now able to seriously engage in nation building Historical Dictionary of East Timor relates the turbulent history of this country through a chronology an introductory essay an expansive bibliography and over 200 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons events places organizations and other aspects of East Timor history from the earliest times to the present In Women's Words Hannah Loney,2018-06-27 Drawing primarily upon oral history interviews this study presents a woman centred history of the Indonesian occupation It reveals the pervasiveness of violence as well as its gendered and gendering dynamics within the social and cultural everyday of life in occupied East Timor The violence experienced by East Timorese women ranged from torture rape and interrogation to various forms of surveillance and social control and the structural imposition of particular feminine ideals upon their lives and bodies Through women East Timorese familial culture was also targeted via programmes to develop and modernise the territory by transforming the feminine and the domestic sphere Women experienced the occupation differently to men not just because they were vulnerable to sexual violence but also because they endured proxy violence as the militarys means of targeting male relatives and the resistance at large In Womens Words tells a story of survival and perseverance by highlighting the strength initiative and negotiating skills of East Timorese women Many women lived in circumstances of constant negotiation and attempts to maintain order and normality as well as to provide for themselves and their families in a society where everyday life was characterised by violence and uncertainty This study demonstrates the capacity of people to survive to endure and to resist even amid the most difficult of circumstances It provides insights into the social and cultural elements of territorial control as well as the locally grounded strategies that are often used for negotiating and resisting an occupying power Tapol ,1992

Conditions of Violence Christian Gerlach,2024-11-04 Mass violence comes not only from states but also from people By analyzing mass violence as social interaction through survivor accounts and other sources this book presents understudied agents aims and practices of direct violence and ways of action of those under persecution Sound history examining the noises of mass violence and persecution is particularly telling about such practices This volume shows that violence can become socially hegemonic and some people claim a freedom to kill as a political right To scrutinize indirect violence which is often imperialist in character and claims many victims the book proposes the concept of conditions of violence These conditions are produced by definable groups of actors and foreseeably harm definable groups which differs from the anonymous and static structural violence This is exemplified in a case study concerning famines in World War II and another on COVID 19 as mass violence Less global in character other case studies in this volume deal with Rwanda Bangladesh East Pakistan and the Soviet Union Unsw Press Charlotte Jarabak,2002 A complete listing of all 721 titles published since the inception of UNSW Press in 1962 Century of Genocide Samuel Totten,William S. Parsons,Israel W.
