Abject Eroticism in Northern Renaissance Art Yvonne Owens, 2020-10-29 Hans Baldung Grien the most famous apprentice and close friend of German artist Albrecht Dürer was known for his unique and highly eroticised images of witches In paintings and woodcut prints he gave powerful visual expression to late medieval tropes and stereotypes such as the poison maiden venomous virgin the Fall of Man death and the maiden and other motifs and eschatological themes which mingled abject and erotic qualities in the female body Yvonne Owens reads these images against the humanist intellectual milieu of Renaissance Germany showing how classical and medieval medicine and natural philosophy interpreted female anatomy as toxic defective and dangerously beguiling She reveals how Hans Baldung exploited this radical polarity to create moralising and titillating portrayals of how monstrous female sexuality victimised men and brought them low Furthermore these images issued from and contributed to the contemporary understanding of witchcraft as a heresy that stemmed from natural feminine defect a concept derived from Aristotle Offering new and provocative interpretations of Hans Baldung's iconic witchcraft imagery this book is essential reading for historians of art culture and gender relations in the late medieval and early modern periods Going to the Last K D Knight, 2018-03-02 For too long the author considered himself a writer of racing fiction It is a neglected market with good reason No fictional account and certainly not the tawdry thrillers which constitute the niche genre can ever come close to replicating the reality of the sport Horse racing is the quintessence of drama the story unfolding daily from every corner of the country with guest appearances from Ireland France and other countries when the sport here must draw breath The cast of these short stories is drawn from all the cardinal points of society from the aristocracy to rough diamonds from the glamorous to the mucky boots of stable yards to people who are quite simply the best human life can aspire to And then there are the horses the true stars the species racing people put on a pedestal Horse racing is tragedy and comedy It is everything Shakespeare aspired to In stories which embrace most strands of storytelling Going to the Last Stories of Horses and Racing is a brave but foolhardy attempt to reflect the beautiful truth of a remarkable sport At the Sign of Triumph David Weber, 2016-11-08 When the leaders and soldiers of the tiny island of Charis rise up behind cybernetic avatar Merlin to defend their home a powerful Church of God Awaiting pushed to the brink
