The Harafish:

The Harafish Naguib Mahfouz, 2016-06-15 Winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1988 Naguib Mahfouz is perhaps the best known living Arab writer His books have had great success in this country particularly The Cairo Trilogy Fans of the famed trilogy will be delighted with The Harafish an epic novel that chronicles the dramatic history of the al Nagi family a family that moves over many generations from the height of power and glory to the depths of decadence and decay The Harafish begins with the tale of Ashur al Nagi a man who grows from humble beginnings to become a great leader a legend among his people Generation after generation however Ashur's descendants grow further from his legendary example They lose touch with their origins as they amass and then squander large fortunes marry prostitutes when they marry at all and develop rivalries that end in death The community's upper class keeps a watchful eye on the descendants of al Nagi for fear of losing their privileges but they find no threat of another such as Ashur Not that is until the al Nagi who like his noble ancestor finds his power once again from among The Harafish or the common people Through the strength of their numbers and their passion the glory of the name of al Nagi is restored Of all Mahfouz's experiments in recent decades this is the one which owes least to western inspiration and is probably the most successful The Harafish fluently translated by Catherine Cobham makes accessible and engrossing reading The Washington Post Book World the harafish naguib mahfouz, 1994 In The Harafish Naguib Mahfouz returns to the style of sweeping narrative at which he has proven himself a master He chronicles the dramatic history of the Nagi family a family that descends over many generations from the heights of power and prestige to the depths of decadence and decay The epic story begins with the tale of Ashur al Nagi a man who grows from humble roots to become a great leader and a legend among his people The name of Ashur epitomizes a time of glory for the harafish or the common people when they were led by one of their own Generation after generation however Ashur's descendants stray further from his legendary example They lose touch with their origins as they amass and then lose large fortunes marry prostitutes when they marry at all and develop rivalries that end in death Finally a Nagi appears who restores the family name to its former distinction The Harafish is a mythic tale a compelling portrait of human weaknesses pride dishonesty lust and greed and of the greatness of which we are capable when we overcome them Power and poverty and the poor Part I of the book from the Hebrew Bible to the French Revolution provides essential background information It introduces the Scriptural ideal of the holy poor and the process by which biblical love of the poor came to be contested and undermined in European legislation and public opinion as capitalism grew and the state took over from the Church Part II from the French Revolution to World War II shows how post 1789 problems of industrialization population growth war and urbanization came to dominate much European literature as poverty and the poor became central concerns of major writers such as Dickens Dostoyevsky and Hugo David Aberbach uses literature from the Bible through Shakespeare Wordsworth Zola Pushkin and Orwell to show how poverty changed from being an endemic and unavoidable fact of life to a challenge for equality that might be attainable through a moral and rational society As a literary and social history of poverty this book argues for the vital importance of literature and the arts in understanding current problems in International Development

The Egyptian Coffeehouse Dalia Mostafa, Amina Elbendary, 2020-11-26 The coffeehouse is a microcosm of the larger Egyptian society with its history of multiculturalism and great diversity It is not only a social space which was created and shaped by the people over decades in their streets neighbourhoods and cities but it also occupies a sphere in the popular imagination full of stories memories and social networks Despite the coffeehouse's cultural centrality and socio-political importance in Egypt academic research and publications on its significance remain sparse This volume aims to fill this gap by presenting for the first time in English a full study analysing the importance of the coffeehouse as an urban phenomenon with its cultural historical economic and political significance in contemporary Egyptian society The volume shows how historically the coffeehouse has always played a key role as a commercial enterprise and culturally as a place for rich literary and artistic production which has multi-layered representations in Egyptian novels cinema and popular music amongst other genres Economically the coffeehouse has been vital for accessing job opportunities especially for informal workers in addition to having played a crucial role in political mobilisation during decisive historical events as well as in recent years during the 2011 revolution and its aftermath Through extended interviews with six residents in Cairo the authors further examine the role and influence of the coffeehouse as a significant feature of contemporary Egyptian life and urban landscape revolution often raising themes of oppression and liberation and almost always within a storyline of criminal transgression But as he discussed in later articles and interviews the capacity for film to enumerate the flow of life through montage jump cuts lighting and close ups helped him to develop a darker faster and more complex vision of society This technological revolution was followed by a literary one in the 1960s a time when Mahfouz would generate through a series of short trenchant and often comedic novellas a deeply measured meditation on the experience of collective upheaval and the interpersonal impact of political transformation Sufism in the Contemporary Arabic Novel Ziad Elmarsafy,2014-08-20 This book will present close readings of three contemporary Arabic novelists an Egyptian Gamal Al Ghitany an Algerian Taher Ouettar and a Touareg Libyan Ibrahim Al Koni who have all turned to Sufism as a literary strategy aimed at negotiating i
