Sixteen Years in Siberia: Some Experiences of a Russian Revolutionist Lev Grigorievich Deutsch, 2020-09-28 In the beginning of March 1884 I travelled from Zurich through Basel to Freiburg in Baden The object of my journey was to smuggle over the frontier a quantity of Russian socialistic literature printed in Switzerland in order that it might then be distributed by secret channels throughout Russia where of course it was prohibited In Germany a special law against the Social Democratic movement was then in force The Sozialdemokrat was published in Zurich and had to be smuggled over the German frontier where the watch was very keen rendering most difficult the despatch to Russia of Russian Polish and other revolutionary literature printed in Switzerland Before the enactment of the special law in August 1878 the procedure had been simple At that time the publications were sent by post to some town in Germany near the Russian border and thence by one way or another despatched to Russia Later however it became necessary to convey them as travellers luggage across the German frontier in order to get them through the custom house after which they could be forwarded to some German town nearer the Russian border It was on this transport business that I was engaged My luggage consisted of two large boxes half filled with literature and their upper parts packed with linen and other wearing apparel that the Customs officers might not be suspicious In one trunk I had men s clothes in the other women s supposed to belong to my non existent wife and for this reason there really was a lady present at the Customs examination in Basel the wife of my friend Axelrod from Zurich She offered to take further charge of the transport thinking she would run less risk than I if the police became suspicious As however the examination of the luggage went off quite smoothly I declined the offer hardly thinking any further trouble probable Besides Frau Axelrod a Basel Socialist was with me at the station He had advised me how to carry out my perilous mission for he was experienced in such business having managed many transports of forbidden literature Only a few days before accompanied by a Polish acquaintance of mine Yablonski he had been to Freiburg whence they had despatched some Polish literature He now recommended to me a cheap hotel in Freiburg close to the station and in good spirits I climbed into a third class carriage It was a Sunday and the carriage was filled with people in gay holiday mood Songs were sung and unrestrained chatter filled the air The guard was pompous and overbearing as often happened then on German lines I do not know if it is so still When he saw that I was smoking he told me very rudely with a great show of official zeal that this was not a smoking carriage I answered politely that I had not been aware of it and at once threw away my cigarette He insisted peremptorily however that I must change carriages A bad omen thought I and still recall the sensation I was out of temper and felt irritated and uncomfortable The weather too grew overcast and a cold drizzle set in which worked on my nerves
