Wisdom, Knowledge, and the Postcolonial University in Thailand Zane Ma Rhea, 2016-12-08 This book examines Thai knowledge and wisdom from the perspective of postmodern postcolonial globalization Ma Rhea explores the ways in which the Thai university system attempts to balance old knowledge traditions Buddhist and rural with new Thai and imported knowledge It traces the development of Thai university partnerships with outsiders focusing on the seventy year relationship between Thailand and Australia In comparison it analyses the old Thai Buddhist wisdom tradition and in the final chapters proposes its worthiness as a pedagogical pathway for universities globally

Constructing and Reconstructing Childhood Allison James, Alan Prout, 2015-05-08 When the first edition of this seminal work appeared in 1990 the sociology of childhood was only just beginning to emerge as a distinct sub discipline Drawing together strands of existing sociological writing about childhood and shaping them into a new paradigm the original edition of this Routledge Classic offered a potent blend of ideas that informed even inspired many empirical studies of children's lives because it provided a unique lens through which to think about childhood. Featuring a collection of articles which summarised the developments in the study of childhood across the social sciences including history psychology sociology anthropology feminist and developmental studies scholars and professionals from developed and developing countries world wide shared their knowledge of having worked and of working with children. Now with a new introduction from the editors to contextualise it into the 21st century this truly ground breaking text which helped establish childhood studies as a distinctive field of enquiry is being republished.
