Social Innovation And The Division Of Labour:

Social Innovation and the Division of Labour Jonathan Gershuny, 1983 Discussion on the effects of technological change on consumer demand the division of labour and structural change of the economic structure in developed countries develops an economic model based on family budget choices which challenges the economic theory assumption that economic development shifts consumer demand from consumer goods to final services service sector discusses time budgets unpaid work in households and implications for employment labour force participation etc Flow charts graphs references statistical tables

Social Innovation A. Nicholls, A. Murdock, 2011-12-16 Focusing on social innovation broadly conceived in the context of social entrepreneurship and social enterprise in their global context this book is organised to address three of the most important themes in social innovation strategies and logics performance measurement and governance and finally sustainability and the environment

Challenge Social Innovation Hans-Werner Franz, Josef Hochgerner, Jürgen Howaldt, 2012-12-13 In recent years social innovation has experienced a steep career Numerous national governments and large organisations like the OECD the European Commission and UNESCO have adopted the term Social innovation basically means that people adopt new social practices in order to meet social needs in a different or more effective way Prominent examples of the past are the Red Cross and the social welfare state or at present the internet 2.0 transforming our communication and cooperation schemes requiring new management concepts even empowering social revolutions The traditional concept of innovation as successful new technological products needs fundamental rethinking in a society marked by knowledge and services leading to a new and enriched paradigm of innovation There is multiple evidence that social innovation will become of growing importance not only concerning social integration equal opportunities and dealing with the greenhouse effects but also with regard to preserving and expanding the innovative capacity of companies and societies While political authorities stress the social facets of social innovation this book also encompasses its societal and systemic dimensions collecting the scientific expertise of renowned experts and scholars from all over the world Based on the contributions of the first world wide science convention on social innovation from September 2011 in Vienna the book provides an overview of scientific approaches to this still relatively new field Forewords by Agnès HUBERT Member of the Bureau of European Policy Advisers BEPA of the European Commission and Antonella Noya Senior Policy Analyst at OECD manager of the OECD LEED Forum on Social Innovations

Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26 This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities The book is divided into four parts Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union

The Economics of Social Innovation Judith Terstriep, Dieter Rehfeld, 2022-06-23 This book addresses the economics of social innovation a widely neglected topic in regional development The chapters in this edited volume cover distinct but complementary and related aspects concerning the existing gap between the hitherto unexploited potential of social innovation in relation to socio economic challenges that regions across Europe and globally face Research on social innovation has gained momentum over the last decade spurred notably by the growing interest in social issues related to policy making public management and entrepreneurship in response to the grand challenges societies in Europe and worldwide face Accelerated by the normative turn in research and innovation policies towards missions social innovation is nowadays a central element on policy agendas from the urban and regional level to the national and subnational level of the European Commission and the OECD However for social innovations to unfold their full potential a better understanding of underlying mechanisms processes and impacts is necessary The first three chapters focus on framework conditions and characteristics of social innovation The following two chapters emphasise the determinants of social innovation and translocal empowerment In the last part attention is devoted to social innovation in specific fields such as health care and greening society and social innovations transformative potential The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal European Planning Studies

Families of Employed Mothers Judith Frankel, 1997 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play's debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficult accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time

Social Innovation and Welfare State Retrenchment Raquel Gallego, Sheila González Motos, Lara Maestripieri, 2024-12-03 Navigating the context of welfare regimes undergoing transformation Social Innovation and Welfare State Retrenchment examines the evidence and questions the capacity of Social Innovation initiatives to tackle social inequalities especially when it comes to the domain of early childhood education and care

Social Innovation Geoff Mulgan, 2019-11-26 The 21st century has brought a cornucopia of new knowledge and technologies But there has been little progress in our ability to solve social problems using social innovation the deliberate invention of new solutions to meet social needs across the globe Geoff Mulgan is a pioneer in the global field of social innovation Building on his experience advising international governments businesses and foundations he explains how it provides answers to today's global social economic and sustainability issues He argues for matching R D in technology and science with a socially focused R D and harnessing creative imagination on a larger scale than ever before Weaving together history ideas policy and practice he shows how social innovation is now coming of age offering a comprehensive view of what can be done to solve the global social challenges we face

Consultancy and Innovation Peter Wood, 2003-09-02 Consultancy and Innovation links two important aspects of European economic development in the past thirty years the pace of technical and management innovation and the growing significance of technical and business consultancy This book includes detailed studies of consultancy activities or knowledge intensive services KIS in eight EU countries written by national experts in the field

The Active Consumer Marina Bianchi, 2006-05-10 The Active Consumer discusses how consumers seem to delight in trying new solutions and exploring new combinatory possibilities This book provides an economic theoretical understanding of this phenomenon and the many ways in which innovation can structure consumer choice The authors show from different points of view how central novelty can be in consumer behaviour how it relates to technical change and how new consumer capabilities are developed and organized

Friend Or Flunkey? Gabrielle Meagher, 2003 Takes a close look at the working lives and attitudes of domestic workers in modern Australia The book examines a great diversity of experiences in the domestic services industry mainly through interviews with many participants both employers and employed

The Transformation of Work? Stephen Wood, 2024-09-02 Originally published in 1989 and now reissued with a new preface by the editor this interdisciplinary study brings together an internationally distinguished group of scholars to shed light about work organization and the effects of new management methods and technologies The book gives an incisive account of changes in work organization and relations during the latter part of the 20th Century

Accessible and comprehensive it will be of interest to those in the sociology of work industrial relations organization theory economics geography and management
