Technology Transfer Agreements And The Ec Competition Rules:

Technology Transfer Agreements and the EC Competition Rules Valentine Korah, 1996 This book provides a detailed and highly expert treatment of the new Technology Transfer Regulation recently adopted by the European Commission The regulation which is of immense importance will be of great interest to practitioners and in house lawyers particularly in the light of the recent new block exemption The regulation has attracted strong opposition from industry and has wide ramifications This makes the need for a book on the subject all the more compelling Professor Korah who is widely known for her work on Competition Law is the leading expert on this subject

Technology Transfer and the New EU Competition Rules Steven D. Anderman, John Kallaugher, 2006 The new Technology Transfer Block Exemption Regulation in force from May 1 2004 signals a profound change in the nature of the regulatory framework for technology licensing under EU competition law This book examines the new Regulation in detail placing it in the wider context of i the modernisation reforms of EC competition law and ii the treatment of IP rights over technology more generally The book also considers the approach to assessment of IP issues set out in the Guidelines that accompany the Regulation the authors discuss their legal basis and where appropriate criticise the approach taken by the Guidelines where the legal basis is unsure

EU Competition Law and Regulation in the Converging Telecommunications, Media and IT Sectors Nikos Th Nikolinakos, 2006-01-01 This book presents the most thoroughgoing model yet offered to ensure the emergence of a genuinely competitive electronic communications industry in Europe In the course of its in depth analysis the discussion focuses on such factors as the following EU telecommunications policy as revealed in liberalization and harmonization legislative measures the EU electronic communications framework case law covering issues of refusal to supply and the essential facilities doctrine application of Article 82 EC to bottlenecks specific types of an undertakings unilateral behaviour that may often occupy NRAs and competition authorities in the context of their ex post competition law investigations under Article 82 EC strategic alliances and mergers in the move toward multimedia access to premium content and the emergence of new media the scope of content regulation in the online environment and broadband regulation of local loop unbundling and bitstream access The book also provides practical guidance on issues concerning the complicated market definition and analysis mechanism promulgated by the European Commission s Recommendation and Guidelines

The EC Competition Law on Technology Licensing Frank L. Fine, 2006 Examining the general principles of liability and focusing on the concept of duty this book provides reference for practitioners and academics It considers key developments in legislation including the Human Rights Act It contains an analysis of case law with footnotes and also considers legislative developments and their implications

Competition Law, Technology Transfer and the TRIPS Agreement Tu Thanh Nguyen, 2010-01-01 The book deals with a difficult subject with an assured touch and will be a valuable text for postgraduate students policy makers and practitioners European Intellectual Property Review This is the first ever book that addresses the important issue of the competition law intellectual property and trade interface in a developing world context The book's unique contribution is a set of comparative case studies on this complex interface D Daniel Sokol University of Florida Levin College of Law US The book investigates competition law and international technology transfer in the light of the TRIPS Agreement and the experience of both developed and developing countries On that basis it draws relevant implications for developing countries Tu Thanh Nguyen argues that technology transfer related competition law should be globalized appropriately for the needs of local contexts while intellectual property rights IPR are globalized The book reveals that developing countries according to the TRIPS Agreement have the right to use domestic competition law to promote access to technology in order to protect national interests and consumer welfare However competition law is antitrust It is neither anti IPR nor anti trade The author finds that developing countries with limited competition law resources should set realistic priorities for the control of technology transfer related anti competitive practices They can reasonably apply and adapt relevant regulations decisions and judgments from developed country jurisdictions to their own circumstances Competition Law Technology Transfer and the TRIPs Agreement is a timely resource for postgraduate students practitioners and scholars in international competition law IPR and technology transfer Policymakers in the field of technology transfer related competition law policy especially in developing countries will also find this book invaluable

Regulating Competition in the EU Pernille Wegener Jessen, Bent Ole Gram Mortensen, Michael Steinicke, Karsten Engsig Sorensen, 2024-05-21 This revised and updated edition of a basic sourcebook and practice guide in EU competition law retains the first edition's significantly broader perspective on EU competition law than most books in the field It explains not only the traditional areas of competition law but also aspects of competition law that are of particular importance to practitioners With its comprehensive overview of relevant provisions related to competition among others the authors shed clear light on the following topics and the interplay between these different areas of competition law the prohibition of agreements which restrict competition the prohibition of abuse of dominant position the rules on merger control the prohibition of State aid the liberalised sectors such as energy supply transport postal services and telecommunications and the rules on public procurement The chapters integrate an extensive number of sources including new acts new decisions and judgments and new Commission guidelines that help guide the interpretation of the underlying Treaty provisions With its enhanced view of EU competition policy regulation and enforcement and its emphasis on specific industry sectors this book offers an unusually thorough view of aspects of competition law which play an essential role in regulating the conduct of undertakings and public authorities in the market This new edition will continue to be of special value to any lawyer policymaker or scholar active in European competition law

Standardization under EU Competition Rules and US Antitrust Laws Björn Lundqvist, 2014-05-30 Offering in depth analysis of the case law currently being written in courtrooms all over the world under the so called patent war the book puts forward a new method for applying competition law to standards and standard setting _ in both its collus Technology
