Technology and the Frontiers of Knowledge ,1973      The Frontiers of Knowledge ,1975      Gateways to Knowledge

Lawrence Dowler,1997 Proponents of the gateway concept which ties together these fifteen essays by scholars librarians and academic administrators envision the library as a point of access to other research resources via technological tools as a place for teaching and as a site for services and support where students and faculty can obtain the information they need in the form in which they need it      Jewish American Writing and World Literature Saul Noam Zaritt,2020-10-13 Jewish

American Writing and World Literature Maybe to Millions Maybe to Nobody studies Jewish American writers relationships with the idea of world literature Writers such as Sholem Asch Jacob Glatstein Isaac Bashevis Singer Anna Margolin Saul Bellow and Grace Paley all responded to a demand to write beyond local Jewish and American audiences and toward the world as a global market and as a transnational ideal Beyond fame and global circulation world literature holds up the promise of legibility in which a threatened origin becomes the site for redemptive literary creativity But this promise inevitably remains unfulfilled as writers struggle to balance potential universal achievements with untranslatable realities rendering impossible any complete arrival in the US and in the world The work examined in this study was deeply informed by an intimate connection to Yiddish a Jewish vernacular with its own global network and institutional ambitions Jewish American Writing and World Literature tracks the attempts and failures through translation to find a home for Jewish vernacularity in the institution of world literature The exploration of the translational uncertainty of Jewish American writing joins postcolonial critiques of US and world literature and challenges Eurocentric and Anglo American paradigms of literary study In bringing into conversation the fields of Yiddish studies American Studies and world literature theory Jewish American Writing and World Literature Maybe to Millions Maybe to Nobody proposes a new approach to the study of modern Jewish literatures and their implication within global empires of culture      Information Society Studies Alistair S.

Duff,2013-12-02 We are often told that we are living in an information society or that we are information workers But what exactly do these claims mean and how might they be verified In this important methodological study Alistair S Duff cuts through the rhetoric to get to the bottom of the information society thesis Wide ranging in coverage this study will be of interest to scholars in information science communication and media studies and social theory It is a key text for the newly unified specialism of information society studies and an indispensable guide to the future of this discipline      Design

Theory and Computer Science Subrata Dasgupta,1991-05-16 The author examines logic and methodology of design from the perspective of computer science Computers provide the context for this examination both by discussion of the design process for hardware and software systems and by consideration of the role of computers in design in general The central question posed by the author is whether or not we can construct a theory of design      Technology and the Frontier of

Knowledge S. Bellow, 1975      Saul Bellow and American Transcendentalism Mohammad A. Quayum, 2004 Saul Bellow and American Transcendentalism explores Saul Bellow's moral and philosophical affinity with the writers of American transcendentalism especially Emerson and Whitman. Its focus is on the vintage Bellow or his mature novels from Henderson the Rain King 1959 to The Dean's December 1982. In these novels Bellow highlights a moral crisis arising from humankind's despiritualization and dehumanization which he believes is responsible for an ongoing dichotomy in the modern world. Bellow describes this as a dichotomy of the Cleans and the Dirties in the context of American culture. To rectify this dichotomy and redeem humankind from its current death-ridden state, Bellow and his protagonists advance a vision of life that corresponds to the transcendental vision of dialogue and double consciousness or coordination and balance. Like Emerson they advocate 'The mid world is best'. A man is a golden impossibility; the line he must walk is a hair's breadth. Comparable to Whitman, they urge the individual to knit the knot of contrariety and act as an arbiter of the diverse.
