

The background of the book cover is a traditional Chinese woodblock-style illustration. It depicts a textile workshop or a domestic space where two women are engaged in weaving. One woman, wearing a pink robe, is seated on the right side, working on a large vertical loom. Another woman, wearing a green robe, is seated on the left side, working on a similar loom. The room is filled with the complex wooden frames of the looms and the threads being woven. The style is characteristic of traditional Chinese art, with fine lines and a muted color palette.
