Technology Transport And Travel In American History:

Technology, Transport, and Travel in American History Robert C. Post, 2003 Robert C Post explores the political social and economic implications behind technological developments throughout American history Technology, Transport, and Travel in American History Robert C. Post, 2003 Robert C Post explores the political social and economic implications behind technological developments throughout American history Critical Issues in the History of Spaceflight Stephen J. Dick, Steven J. Dick, Roger D. Launius, 2006 In March 2005 the NASA History Division and the Division of Space History at the National Air and Space Museum brought together a distinguished group of scholars to consider the state of the discipline of space history This volume is a collection of essays based on those deliberations The meeting took place at a time of extraordinary transformation for NASA stemming from the new Vision of Space Exploration announced by President George W Bush in January 2004 to go to the Moon Mars and beyond This Vision in turn stemmed from a deep reevaluation of NASA's goals in the wake of the Space Shuttle Columbia accident and the recommendations of the Columbia Accident Investigation Board The new goals were seen as initiating a New Age of Exploration and were placed in the context of the importance of exploration and discovery to the American experiences Amazon Science, Technology, and Society Sal P. Restivo, 2005 Emphasizing an interdisciplinary and international coverage of the functions and effects of science and technology in society and culture Science Technology and Society B contains over 130 A to Z signed articles written by major scholars and experts from academic and scientific institutions and institutes worldwide Each article is accompanied by a selected bibliography Other features include extensive cross referencing throughout a directory of contributors and an extensive topical index

The Industrial Revolution in America Kevin Hillstrom, Laurie Collier Hillstrom, 2005-04-25 An impressive set of books on the Industrial Revolution these comprehensive volumes cover the history of steam shipping iron and steel production and railroads three interrelated enterprises that helped shift the Industrial Revolution into overdrive The first set of volumes in ABC CLIO's breakthrough Industrial Revolution in America series features separate histories of three closely related industries whose maturation fueled the Industrial Revolution in the United States during the late 19th and 20th centuries fundamentally changing the way Americans lived their lives With this set students will learn how the steamship the first great American contribution to the world's technology helped turn the nation's waterways into a forerunner of our superhighways how the Andrew Carnegie led American steel industry surpassed its British rivals marking a momentous power shift among industrialized nations and how the railroads spurred by some of the United States's most dynamic entrepreneurs Cornelius Vanderbilt John Pierpont Morgan Jay Gould moved from a single transcontinental link to become the most influential and far reaching technological innovation of the Industrial Age extending into virtually every facet of American culture and commerce A Short Guide to Writing about History Melvin E. Page, Brian J. Maxson, 2023-03-27 This widely used guide for students has long emphasized the excitement of historical discovery rooted in writing about the past This new edition continues that emphasis while also affirming the contemporary significance of the search for truth in historical writing It includes new and revised sections related to electronic technologies as well as updated examples of recent historical scholarship throughout It maintains the welcoming accessible and inclusive tone of previous editions while walking students through complex ideas and established writing standards As it has since its inception the tenth edition of A Short Guide to Writing about History helps students confront and conquer any of the challenges they might face in writing about history

Urban Mass Transit Robert C. Post, 2006-11-30 This volume in the Greenwood Technographies series covers urban mass transit that is the technologies that allow cities to move large numbers of people around Just a few hundred years ago the size of cities was limited by the time it took people to move from one part of the city to another The development of successive technologies has forever altered the urban landscape From horse drawn omnibuses to subways to current light rail this volume highlights the technological and social struggles that have accompanied urbanization and the need for an efficient and cost effective means of transportation in cities

Rivers in History Christof Mauch, Thomas G. Zeller, 2008-07-27 Throughout history rivers have run a wide course through human temporal and spiritual experience They have demarcated mythological worlds framed the cradle of Western civilization and served as physical and psychological boundaries among nations Rivers have become a crux of transportation industry and commerce They have been loved as nurturing providers nationalist symbols and the source of romantic lore but also loathed as sites of conflict and natural disaster Rivers in History presents one of the first comparative histories of rivers on the continents of Europe and North America in the modern age The contributors examine the impact of rivers on humans and conversely the impact of humans on rivers They view this dynamic relationship through political cultural industrial social and ecological perspectives in national and transnational settings As integral sources of food and water local and international transportation recreation and aesthetic beauty rivers have dictated where cities have risen and in times of flooding drought and war where they've fallen Modern Western civilizations have sought to control rivers by channeling them for irrigation raising and lowering them in canal systems and damming them for power generation Contributors analyze the regional national and international politicization of rivers the use and treatment of waterways in urban versus rural environments and the increasing role of international commissions in ecological and commercial legislation for the protection of river resources Case studies include the Seine in Paris the Mississippi the Volga the Rhine and the rivers of Pittsburgh Rivers in History is a broad environmental history of waterways that makes a major contribution to the study preservation and continued sustainability of rivers as vital lifelines of Western culture

Power Struggles Michael B. Schiffer, 2008 Laying the foundation for Thomas Edison the first electric generators were built in the 1830s the earliest commercial lighting systems before 1860 and the first commercial application of generator powered light in the early 1860s This book examines some of these early applications of electricity

The World Beyond the Windshield Christof Mauch, Thomas Zeller, 2008 For better or worse the view through a car's windshield has redefined how we see the world around us In some cases such as the American parkway the view from the road was the be all and end all of the highway in others such as the Italian autostrada the view of a fast efficient transportation machine celebrating either Fascism or its absence was the goal These varied environments are neither necessary nor accidental but the outcomes of historical negotiations and whether we abhor them or take delight in them they have become part of the fabric of human existence The World beyond the Windshield Roads and Landscapes in the United States and Europe is the first systematic comparative look at these landscapes By looking at examples from the United States and Europe the chapters in this volume explore the relationship between the road and the landscape that it traverses cuts through defines despoils and enhances The authors analyze the Washington Beltway and the Blue Ridge Parkway as well as iconic roads in Italy Nazi Germany East Germany and Great Britain This is a story of the transatlantic exchange of ideas about environment and technology and of the national and nationalistic appropriations of such landscaping
