Technopoles Of The World Making Of 21st Century Industrial Complexes:

Technopoles of the World Manuel Castells, Peter Hall, 1994 This book is the first systematic survey of technopoles in all its manifestations science parks science cities national technopolis and technobelt programmes Detailed case studies ranging from Silicon Valley to Siberia and from the M4 Corridor to Taiwan relate how global technopoles have developed what each is striving to achieve and how well it is succeeding Back cover

Technopoles of the World Manuel Castells, 2014-01-14 Technopoles planned centres for the promotion for high technology industry have become a key feature of national economic development worldwide Created out of a technological revolution the formation of the global economy and the emergence of a new form of economic production and management they constitute the mines and foundries of the information age redefining the conditions and processes of local and regional development This book is the first systematic survey of technopoles in all manifestations science parks science cities national technopoles and technobelt programmes Detailed case studies ranging from the Silicon Valley to Siberia and from the M4 Corridor to Taiwan relate how global technopoles have developed what each is striving to achieve and how well it is succeeding Technopoles of the World distills the lessons learnt from the successes and failures embracing a host of disparate concepts and a few myths and offering guidelines for national regional and local planners and developers worldwide

Making 21st Century Knowledge Complexes Julie Miao, Paul Benneworth, Nicholas A. Phelps, 2015-05-15 The world has changed profoundly since the publication of the influential book Technopoles of the World As policy makers and practitioners attempt to harness science technology and innovation to create dynamic and vibrant cities many wonder how relevant Manuel Castells and Peter Hall's messages are today Twenty years later this book returns to their concepts and practices to update their message for the 21st century Making 21st Century Knowledge Complexes Technopoles of the World Revisited argues that the contemporary technopole concept encompasses three new dimensions Firstly building synergy between partners is vital for the success of complexes Secondly the correct governance arrangements are critical to balance competing interests inevitable in any science city project Thirdly new evaluation mechanisms are indispensable in allowing policy makers to steer their long term benefits Through twelve case study chapters and a detailed comparative analysis this book provides academics policy makers and practitioners with critical insights in understanding managing and promoting today's high technology urban complexes

The Planning

Imagination Mark Tewdwr-Jones, Nicholas Phelps, Robert Freestone, 2013-10-01 Knighted in 1998 for services to the Town and Country Planning Association and in 2003 named by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II as a Pioneer in the Life of the Nation Peter Hall is internationally renowned for the breadth and depth of his studies and writings on urban and regional planning For the last 50 years he has captured and helped to create the planning imagination Here the editors have brought together in five themes a series of critical reflections on Peter's vast and diverse contributions Those reflections are provided by colleagues familiar with his work The five parts are devoted to Peter Hall's breadth of academic work covering the history of cities and planning London spatial planning connectivity and mobility and urban globalization Finally as a sixth part the editors have asked Peter Hall himself to reflect on his career and the sources of his imagination The story this book tells is not one of a singular totally consistent theoretical and philosophical view elaborated over several decades Rather it covers a set of views that necessarily admits signs of Peter's inconsistency and imperfection over the years the insights and imperfections that inevitably accompany the exercise of a nonetheless remarkably fertile restless and inspiring planning imagination

The Leisure Commons Payal Arora, 2014-06-27 There is much excitement about Web 2.0 as an unprecedented novel community building space for experiencing producing and consuming leisure particularly through social network sites What is needed is a perspective that is invested in neither a utopian or dystopian posture but sees historical continuity to this cyberleisure geography This book investigates the digital public sphere by drawing parallels to another leisure space that shares its rhetoric of being open democratic and free for all the urban park It makes the case that the history and politics of public parks as an urban commons provides fresh insight into contemporary debates on corporatization democratization and privatization of the digital commons This book takes the reader on a metaphorical journey through multiple forms of public parks such as Protest Parks Walled Gardens Corporate Parks Fantasy Parks and Global Parks addressing issues such as virtual activism online privacy surveillance digital labor branding and globalization of digital networks Ranging from the 19th century British factory garden to Tokyo Disneyland this book offers numerous spatial metaphors to bring to life aspects of new media spaces Readers looking for an interdisciplinary historical and spatial approach to stable Web 2.0 discourses will undoubtedly benefit from this text

Transnationalism from Below Michael Peter Smith, Luis Eduardo Guarnizo, 1998-01-01 Expansion of transnational capital and mass media to even the remotest of places has provoked a spate of discourse on transnationalism A core theme in this debate is the penetration of national cultures and political systems by global and local driving forces The nation state is seen as weakened by transnational capital global media and emergent supranational political institutions It also faces the decentering local resistances of the informal economy ethnic nationalism and grass roots activism Transnationalism From Below brings together a rich combination of theoretical and grounded studies of transnational processes and practices discussing both their positive and negative aspects The editors examine the scope and limits of transnationalism The volume is divided into four parts Theorizing Transnationalism Transnational Economic and Political Agency Constructing Transnational Localities and Transnational Practices and Cultural Reinscription Contributors include Andre C Drainville Josephine Smart Alan Smart Minna Nyberg Sørensen George Fouron Nina Glick Schiller Luin Goldring Sarah J Mahler Linda Miller Matthei Louisa Schein David A Smith and Robert C Smith Moving easily between micro and macro analyses this book expands the boundaries of the current scholarship on transnationalism locates new forms of transnational agency and poses provocative questions that challenge prevailing interpretations of globalization Transnationalism From Below is a pioneering collection that will make a significant
