Ted Mcroberts North Country Marshal:

Ted McRoberts Gene Medaris,1987-04-01 Mountains, Rainbows and an Occasional Moose Clyta Coder,2019-07-29

How exciting to drive over the Alaska Highway in 1975 to a land of snow covered mountain peaks and glorious northern lights What a challenge to adjust to the extreme cold the vast distances between population centers and the high cost of living How did Clyta Coder and her husband Frank accept living thousands of miles away from extended family With a lot of help from a lot of friends incredible men and women like missionary Valeria Sherard Ted McRoberts a retired territorial marshal and Ethyl Peasgood who had taught school in three remote villages Share the experiences of an ordinary couple in an extraordinary land serving the Lord in churches across Alaska Frank was a minister of music and youth and a music teacher in public schools Clyta worked alongside him teaching children youth and adults in Bible study and mission groups The seven years they lived in Alaska were full of highs and lows the fondest dreams and the deepest disappointments The faith that the ups and downs tempered in Clyta has sustained her She writes of her faith journey to help others who might be traveling through valleys of doubt and discouragement Travel the vast north country with Clyta and learn to love the land and its people as she and Frank did

History of Alaska , Volume II Jonathan M. Nielson, Ph.D.,2018-03-01 The most significant military development to touch Alaska during the interwar years was the advent of air power an innovation that completely altered Alaska's strategic position Suddenly the world became smaller as areas once thought safely distant from potential enemies became vulnerable Nowhere was this more evident than in the Pacific whose countless islands became potential advanced air bases As air technology improved the ability of long range bombers and by the 1930s of carrier aircraft to penetrate American airspace was a development of far reaching significance While such warnings were largely limited to a handful of air power advocates their vocal advocacy constituted nothing less than an insurrection a revolution in military thinking fought against entrenched military conservatism cultural aversion to change fears of budget cuts and War Department lethargy Indeed it was the air power crusader General Billy Mitchell who aggressively fought to convince the War and Navy Departments to embrace the new doctrine of offensive air power Mitchell came to understand Alaska's strategic importance early on Consequently he saw the Aleutians as a vulnerability if left unguarded Japan could creep up and by establishing air dominance take Alaska and Canada's West Coast But he also saw Alaska as a strategic base from which American planes could reduce Tokyo to powder Prophetically in 1923 Mitchell forecast precisely the military threat and strategic arguments that would shape military thinking almost twenty years later I am thinking of Alaska In an air war if we were unprepared Japan could take it away from us first by dominating the sky and creeping up the Aleutians By the mid to late 1930s military and civilian advocates of air power and more visionary strategists were beginning to make their voices heard in Congress and elsewhere decrying Alaska's military vulnerability Between 1933 and 1944 no one was more adamant than Alaska's Delegate in Congress Anthony Joseph Tony Dimond who challenged the nation to defend itself by defending

Alaska To Dimond it seemed poor strategy to fortify one pacific base Hawaii while ignoring another Alaska Dimond s campaign was strengthened by passage of the Wilcox Bill sponsored by Representative J Mark Wilcox D Florida officially known as the National Air Defense Act This truly significant legislation authorized the location and construction of military airfields throughout the United States as a general defense preparedness measure Alaska was recognized as one of the nation s six strategic regions and two bases one at Anchorage the other at Fairbanks were recommended in part because Alaska was closer to Japan than it is to the center of the continental United States Fortuitously for Alaska defense advocates General Douglas MacArthur stepped down as Chief of Staff of the Army and was replaced by Major General Malin Craig in October 1935 Craig and Brigadier General Stanley D Embick advocated a substantial reconfiguration of Plan Orange arguing that the Philippines presented an invitation to attack and should be neutralized in favor defending the Alaska Hawaii Panama Triangle Both the Army and Navy were charged with defending Alaska as far west as Dutch Harbor and the army pledged to mobilize 6 600 troops in Alaska within a month of attack by Japan In contemplating the defense of Alaska the Army General Staff formulated five priority objectives first increase the Alaska garrison second establish a major base for Army operations near Anchorage third develop a network of air bases within Alaska fourth garrison these bases with combat troops and fifth protect the naval installations at Sitka Kodiak and Dutch Harbor Alaska was about to go to war Family Records Today ,1998 Armed Forces on a Northern Frontier Jonathan M.
