Telecommunications The Time For Truth Myths Of Deregulation:

Telecommunications, the Time for Truth Jack Keavney, 1990 Australian national bibliography ,1961 International Bibliography of the Social Sciences British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1992 The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Forbrugerne og telepolitikken Anders Henten, Flemming Nielsen, Knud Erik Skouby, Jan Kronlund, 1992 Summary Tiivistelmä Dictionary of Media and Communication Studies James Watson, Anne Hill, 2015-10-22 A comprehensive lexicon of all aspects of the study of interpersonal group mass communication and the world of internet communication Political Power in America Anthony R. DiMaggio, 2019-12-01 Analyzing major political institutions such as Congress the courts the presidency and the media this book chronicles how the interests of affluent Americans particularly business professional and corporate interests dominate over those of average citizens Anthony R DiMaggio examines American political behavior as it relates to lobbying citizen activism media consumption and voting to demonstrate how the public is often misinformed and manipulated regarding major political and economic matters However record public distrust of the government and the increasing popularity of mass protests suggest that most Americans are deeply unhappy with the political status quo and many are willing to fight for change Political Power in America details this interplay between a political system dominated by the affluent few and the rise of mass political distrust and protest It offers information and tools needed to better understand the democratic deficit in American politics while providing opportunities for discussing what we might do to address the mounting crisis of declining democracy

Resources in Education ,1988 Social Movements and Free-Market Capitalism in Latin America Sybil Rhodes, 2012-02-01 This innovative book examines how the privatization and reregulation of the telecommunications sectors in Chile Argentina and Brazil in the 1980s and 1990s provoked the rise of new consumer protest movements in Latin America Sybil Rhodes looks at how hasty privatization of state owned telephone companies led to short term economic windfalls for multinational corporations but long term instability due to consumer movements or the threat of them Eventually these governments implemented consumer friendly regulation as a belated form of damage control In contrast governments that privatized through more gradual democratic processes were able to make credible commitments to their citizens as well as to their multinational investors by including regulatory regimes with consumer protection mechanisms built in Rhodes illustrates how consumers previously unacknowledged actors in studies of social movements market reforms and democratizations in and beyond Latin America are indispensable to understanding the political and social implications of these broad global trends Coming After Oprah Vicki Abt, Leonard Mustazza, 1997 Examines the evolution and cultural significance of these programs disputing claims that they are nothing more than harmless entertainment The first half uncovers the mechanics of the talk show game The second reveals the web of commercial and political interests that influence the shows production as well as describing corporate players and their revenues The study concludes with suggestions for what we as a culture might do to protect ourselves from deception and misinformation Paper edition unseen 20 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Computerworld ,1997-12-22 For more than 40 years Computerworld has been the leading source of technology news and information for IT influencers worldwide Computerworld s award winning Web site Computerworld com twice monthly publication focused conference series and custom research form the hub of the world s largest global IT media network
