Paul Peck, Dorothy Shea Chapman

Tell Me Cat:

My cat told me - my dog told me Didier Hallépée, 2011-09-07 The cat and the dog have been occupying a prominent place in our homes and at our sides for many years. It is normal to come across them at any time in our literature or when visiting a website. Sometimes they occupy the central place and there are many books that have been devoted to them, sometimes by writers less well known than their companions. Other times they are just making the scene more lively, more truthful because without them, where would be the soul of our homes. Through these quotes, you will first travel in time across regions, religions, and cultures: the Bible, Einstein, Mahomet, Queen Elisabeth II, Shakespeare, Agatha Christie, and many others. This little journey into the heart of wisdom or in the company of famous personalities will give you all the delights that our four-legged friends deserve. And at the heart of all these treasures, I'm sure you will find valuable thoughts to illuminate your every day. His life in a family of Egyptian Maus and King Charles Spaniels made him sensitive to the deepness of the thoughts of our favorite 4 legs. Didier HALL P E shares with us the many quotations he met in the over ten thousand books he could read. Me, Cat and Others in the Street Ron S. King, 2010-09-25 This is a story about a man and a cat which mysteriously turns up in a cardboard box on his doorstep. What happens next is a continuous tale of fun and of characters of the Street who create havoc in the man's life. This story is narrated in a most humorous way and will give hours of fun and contains many humorous pictures.

You Know Me; I'm Not One to Complain Paul Peck, Dorothy Shea Chapman, 2008-04 Dorothy Shea Chapman was the last person in the world to take herself seriously. When she first came to our Autobiography Workshop held in the Community Senior Citizen Center in Dana Point, CA, she entered the room with a bouncing flair and a spirited walk while folding up her red-tipped white cane. One knew immediately that this woman was full of wit, intelligent without the egotism that often goes with it, possessing a self-deprecating manner that worked as a magnet. She drew others to her without any visible effort. Dorothy's essays and poetry hit their target every time. Nothing no subject was off limits for her pen. She exhibits a sensitivity not often seen when she tackles life's most laborious challenges, even grief. She tackled everything from kitchen pots to kibitzing pols from gravy to graft, so to speak. This book promises you one laughing-out-loud page after another. Let this mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother regale you, teach you, and bless you. Beauty & the Beast:

Fire at Sea Nancy Holder, 2016-05-31 More determined than ever to focus on their hard-earned relationship, Vincent and Catherine attempt to celebrate their marriage with a romantic getaway far from the city and the stresses of work, family, and anything else that could keep them apart. No cell phones, no guns, no beasting out just each other. But when their tranquil cruise ship is transformed into a crime scene, there's no escape, and Cat and Vincent are submerged in chaos. Can they bring down the threat before it brings down the ship? Chicken Soup for the Soul: What I Learned from My Cat Amy Newmark, 2025-05-20 We learn so much from our cats, and along the way they keep us company, provide unconditional love, and share in the ups and downs of our lives.
