Republican Orators from Eisenhower to Trump Andrew S. Crines, Sophia Hatzisavvidou, 2017-11-22 This is the first thorough and systematic interrogation of Republican Party oratory and rhetoric that examines a series of leading figures in American conservative politics It asks How do leading Republican Party figures communicate with and influence their audiences What makes a successful speech and why do some speeches fail to resonate Most importantly it also investigates why orators use different styles of communication with different audiences such as the Senate party conventions public meetings and through the media By doing so it shines important new light into conservative politics from the era of Eisenhower to the more brutal politics of Donald Trump The book will appeal to students and scholars across the fields of US politics contemporary US history and rhetoric and communication studies Intentions in the Experience of Meaning Raymond W. Gibbs, 1999-09-13 What do our assumptions about authorship matter for our experience of meaning This book examines the debates in the humanities and social sciences over whether authorial intentions can or should constrain our interpretation of language and art Scholars assume that understanding of linguistic and artistic meaning should not be constrained by beliefs about authors and their possible intentions in creating a human artifact It is argued here that people are strongly disposed to infer intentionality when understanding oral speech written texts artworks and many other human actions Although ordinary people and scholars may infer meanings that diverge from or extend beyond what authors intend our experience of human artifacts as meaningful is fundamentally tied to our assumptions of intentionality This challenges the traditional ideas of intentions as existing solely in the minds of individuals and formulates a new conceptual framework for examining if and when intentions influence the interpretation of meaning Telling It Like It Was Brenda Jackson, Penguin Books Staff, Ronald L McDonald, 1969-01-01 Kimball's Dairy Farmer ,1907 Lippincott's Magazine ,1915 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
