Visual Arts Pamela J. Eyerdam, 2003-03-30 Use the Internet to teach visual arts and refine students critical thinking skills This book is based on the Discipline Based Art Education program a proven art instruction program that teaches everything from the creative process and art history to criticism and aesthetics An abundance of primary source Web sites and background information is offered The main focus of the book is western art history and painting but examples of sculpture drawings prints and architecture are included along with a chapter on diversity Part I provides background material A brief history of art education is presented followed by a review of the components of design elements and principles The book describes using the Internet as a primary source by identifying and evaluating websites Part II follows the program through the main historical periods from prehistoric and ancient Middle Eastern art through the Renaissance through the 20th century A bibliography and index are included Educating in the Arts Lindy Joubert, 2008-06-19 When I was first asked to edit this book the researcher in me delighted at the opportunity to provide case studies from different cultural traditions with a team of like minded fellow artists educators and researchers But as the book took shape I also discovered a true passion for its fundamental messages Educating in the Arts the Asian Experience talks about how landscapes and histories farms and cities the mountains seas and skies interact with lives and form the backdrop for stories that build and link the creative clusters of a place This book has provided a wonderful opportunity to delve into the many worlds that incorporate the arts particularly where the arts inform inspire and look for answers to difficult questions Having attracted a broad range of contributors from every corner of the Asian region a substantial collection of detailed information has emerged Each story has an approach that is universal yet culturally unique Close your eyes and see the colours smell the smells and hear the voices of the children against the background rhythms of song birds urban traffic or whistling winds The New York
