The Church Behind the Bamboo Curtain Andrew Gih, 1961 The Church Behind the Bamboo Curtain [by] Andrew Gih. Foreword by J. Edwin Orr Andrew Gih, 1961 The Church Behind the Bamboo Curtain. Foreword by J. Edwin Orr Andrew Gih, 1961 The Church Behind the Bamboo Curtain Donald Owens, 1973 The Church Behind the Bamboo Curtain, Etc Andrew Gih, 1961 The Cross Behind the Bamboo Curtain Shirley Ann Averitt, 1963 I have attempted to give a brief factual and objective history of the Christian Church in China the policy of the Communist Party toward the Christian Church and to look into the possibilities for the future of the Christian Church in China Preface A Protestant Church in Communist China John Craig William Keating, 2012-02-16 Freedom of religious belief is guaranteed under the constitution of the People's Republic of China but the degree to which this freedom is able to be exercised remains a highly controversial issue Much scholarly attention has been given to persecuted underground groups such as Falun but one area that remains largely unexplored is the relationship between officially registered churches and the communist government This study investigates the history of one such official church Moore Memorial Church in Shanghai This church was founded by American Methodist missionaries By the time of the 1949 revolution it was the largest Protestant church in East Asia running seven day a week programs As a case study of one individual church operating from an historical rather than theological perspective this study examines the experience of people at this church against the backdrop of the turbulent politics of the Mao and Deng eras It asks and seeks to answer questions such as were the people at the church pleased to see the foreign missionaries leave Were people forced to sign the so called Christian manifesto Once the church doors were closed in 1966 did worshipers go underground Why was this particular church especially chosen to be the first re opened in Shanghai in 1979 What explanations are there for its phenomenal growth since then A considerable proportion of the data for this study is drawn from Chinese language sources including interviews personal correspondence statistics internal church documents and archives many of which have never previously been published or accessed by foreign researchers The main focus of this study is on the period from 1949 to 1989 a period in which the church experienced many ups and downs restrictions and limitations The Mao era in particular remains one of the least understood and seldom written about periods in the history of Christianity in China This study therefore makes a significant contribution to our evolving understanding of the delicate balancing act between compromise co operation and compliance that categorizes church state relations in modern China The Diaspora Returns Home Bryan M. Woods, 2024-03-15 In recent years the Vietnamese diaspora including some of whom are Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u have returned to their natal homeland of Vietnam in large numbers This book investigates the phenomenon of the Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u who have returned and reestablished belonging in Vietnam with a missional purpose and the perspective of non migrant local Protestant Christian leaders as a case study of diaspora missiology It is based upon doctoral research utilizing in depth interviews which sought to answer the following questions 1 What are the motivating factors of Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u returning to Vietnam for mission related purposes 2 What has been the experience in ministry of the returning Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u regarding mission related reasons for returning 3 How have the non migrants experienced the phenomenon of return This book explores the answers to these questions as a case study of diaspora missiology Findings suggest that the Protestant Christian Vi t Ki u are welcomed back in Vietnam and contributing in many dynamic ways in the homeland At the same time the return journey is a road layered with complexities contradictions opportunities and unique challenges Findings from this diaspora community engaged in missions by and beyond the diaspora give insight into the paradigm of diaspora missiology and temper the enthusiasm for widely promoted theory Important questions arise regarding how far diaspora as a framework can carry us
