The Colony John Bowers,1971 New York Magazine ,1971-01-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1971-01-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Jewelers of the Ummah Ariella Aïsha Azoulay,2024-09-24 A deeply personal exploration of family empire art and identity from the author of Potential History Can we return to worlds destroyed by colonial violence In a series of letters to her father her great grandmothers and her children and to thinkers such as Frantz Fanon and Hannah Arendt Ariella A sha Azoulay examines the disruption of Jewish Muslim life in Algeria and broadly in the Maghreb and the Middle East by two colonial projects French rule and the Zionist colonization of Palestine which provoked the departure of Jews from these areas Jewelry making was a profession that marked the Algerian Jews place in the world they shared in the ummah the borderless community of Muslims The objects they crafted continue to unsettle the clear cut separation of Jews from Muslims and of Jews from Algeria In this jewelry and in the history of those who made wore and sold it Azoulay finds a path to reviving the lost wisdom of her ancestors Emptying Africa of its Jews is a tragedy which Azoulay refuses to accept In these letters she reintroduces Muslim Jews to the violence of colonization and traces anticolonial pathways to rebuild the rich world of the jewelers of the ummah The Long 2020 Subhas Ranjan Chakraborty,Paula Banerjee,Kaustubh Mani Sengupta,2024-03-11 This book looks at the current crises of life and livelihood following the global epidemiological crisis and various strategies to manage them as a long unfolding of past trends and future possibilities of epidemiological governance restructuring of global economy public health systems of protection and care and the role of state in that and precarities of the migrants and the refugees It brings together scholars from different fields to think of our present in the time of COVID 19 pandemic in a longer temporal frame The essays compiled in this book investigate issues mentioned above covering a period from the colonial past to the postcolonial present with an aim towards encouraging scholarly debates on protection care and justice Although the experiences of last two years have inspired some very important academic and scholarly interventions this book compiles original research to contextualise the present in a longue duree framework and arrive at a more complex understanding of it It is a must have resource for researchers of developmental studies especially in the above mentioned areas as well as policy makers think tanks and other non governmental organizations interested in these areas Diaspora in the Countryside Royden Loewen,2006-12-15

From the 1930s to the 1980s the North American countryside faced a profound cultural transformation in which a once unified rural society became fragmented and dispersed Families wishing to remain on the farm were required to accept new levels of automation while others unwilling or unable to make the change migrated to nearby towns or regional cities The cultural reformulation that resulted saw the emergence of a genuine rural diaspora The growing cultural and physical separation was especially true for close knit ethno religious communities Mennonites in particular Forced into regional cities the kaleidoscopic urban culture further fragmented the Mennonites into disparate social entities In Diaspora in the Countryside the phenomena of rural fragmentation is examined by comparing and contrasting two closely related but distinctive Dutch Russian Mennonite communities located in different parts of the continent Kansas and Manitoba respectively By systematically comparing these communities two distinctive responses to the mid twentieth century Great Disjuncture are made apparent Royden Loewen also contrasts the cultural changes of these farm families to the cultures their kin adopted in nearby towns and cities Loewen charts not only the dispersion of two rural communities but follows their former residents as they reformulate their lives in new settings The Colonial Office List for ... Great Britain.
