Alice Walker - The Color Purple Rachel Lister, 2010-06-30 Since its publication in 1982 The Color Purple has polarized critics and generated controversy while delighting many readers around the world Rachel Lister offers a clear stimulating and wide ranging exploration of the critical history of Alice Walker's best selling novel from contemporary reviews through to twenty first century readings This Reader's Guide Opens with an overview of Walker's work Provides a detailed consideration of the conception and reception of The Color Purple Examines coverage of key critical issues and debates such as Walker's use of generic conventions linguistic and narrative strategies race class gender and sexual politics Covers the reception and cultural impact of cinematic and musical adaptations including Steven Spielberg's 1985 film and the recent Broadway production Lively and insightful this is an indispensable volume for anyone studying or simply interested in Alice Walker and her most famous work The Development of Celie in 'The Color Purple' Nadja Grebe, 2010-05-17 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 5 Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald Institut für Fremdsprachliche Philologien course Introduction to Postcolonialism language English abstract In order to meet these ambitions I will present several general aspects on The Color Purple including setting and formal features in the following chapter The third and fourth chapters serve as the main part of my paper since they deal with characteristics and the development of Celie in detail Consequently I will seek to uncover reasons for her lack of self esteem in chapter 3 by taking a closer look to her childhood first Moreover I will concentrate on one main problem Celie has to face during her life sexual discrimination In this connection I find it also most important to examine key figures and scenes that have turned her into the woman she is However as the story continues it becomes also obvious that Celie undergoes changes Thus Chapter 4 will focus on her identification process and the respective result While the preceding chapter demonstrates the establishment of Celie's personality the attention will now be turned to decisive factors that generate and support her search of identity Hence especially the relationship between Celie and Shug the initiator of her transformation and marginally the influence of her newly created social network will be taken into account Lastly I will examine the final stage and result of her development the evolution of a dignified self confident woman Eventually Chapter 5 will provide a brief summary of the discussion Furthermore it will evaluate Celie s process in consideration of the given task and highlight the importance and universal validity of her development The literature I have concentrated on is in large part taken from journals that hold a broad range of essays on The Color Purple in general and on the character Celie in particular However first and foremost the research refers to Alice Walker s novel itself As no single comprehensive analysis on The Color Purple exists I will not focus on one academic only but instead take different perspectives into account However I would like to point out the essays of Daniel Ross Charles Proudfit Emma Waters Dawson and Trudier Harris as they were rather useful for my discussion
