The Congregation As Church:

The Congregation in Church, 1906 Beyond Maintenance to Mission Craig L. Nesson, 2010-02-24 Here in a newly revised edition is a powerful and pertinent guide for congregations wanting to move away from maintenance thinking to powerful creative engagement with the world Visionary yet practical Nesson's influential book makes a persuasive case for the centrality of mission in the life of the church Nesson's model of mission driven leadership is strongly centered on the community of faith's worship and draws unique connections between the worship life of a congregation and every aspect of the church's ministry Around the twin foci of congregational identity and mission the chapters in this dynamic book provide solid theological and radical direction on the themes of worship education fellowship stewardship evangelism global connections and social ministry Equally pertinent to seminary classroom and parish life the new edition highlights worship's centrality adds a new chapter on prayer and spiritual practices in this framework significantly revises the treatments of fellowship and evangelism and adds a full set of materials designed for congregational visioning and planning Church and Congregation Cyrus Augustus Bartol, 1858 The Congregation in a Secular Age (Ministry in a Secular Age Book #3) Andrew Root, 2021-01-19 Churches often realize they need to change But if they're not careful the way they change can hurt more than help In this culmination of his well received Ministry in a Secular Age trilogy leading practical theologian Andrew Root offers a new paradigm for understanding the congregation in contemporary ministry He articulates why congregations feel pressured by the speed of change in modern life and encourages an approach that doesn't fall into the negative traps of our secular age Living in late modernity means our lives are constantly accelerated and calls for change in the church often support this call to speed up Root asserts that the recent push toward innovation in churches has led to an acceleration of congregational life that strips the sacred out of time Many congregations are simply unable to keep up which leads to burnout and depression When things move too fast we feel alienated from life and the voice of a living God The Congregation in a Secular Age calls congregations to reimagine what change is and how to live into this future helping them move from relevance to resonance The Congregation Driven Ministry Larry W Ellis, 2007-07 Most clergy and laity agree that their churches are mired in maintenance ministry In past years congregations have asked How do churches grow when the better question may be How do members grow Most church leaders desire to raise an army for God but usually settle for more of an audience than an army The Congregation Driven Ministry Moving from Membership to Maturity attempts to address this issue The people of God must be equipped to do ministry The goal must be to make disciples In doing CDM workshops for many churches small medium and mega the needs are the same In Thurman White's preface he states that the CDM provides a set of best practices for clergy and laity so that both are clear about their perspective ministry roles America's churches are at a pivotal place of transition The vibrant ministries must be vigilant or find themselves facing decline Often it is difficult for churches to admit that they are personality driven instead of congregationally driven This work does not seek to diminish the role of the pastor teacher but to encourage leadership to place the responsibility for growth on the congregation and not the minister alone Let us give more power to the people Leading the Congregation Roger Heuser, Norman Shawchuck, 2010 A complete and definitive guide to the practice of church leadership newly revised The Congregation in Church Thomas Isaac Ball, 1902 The Congregation, The Club and The Church Santosh Poonen, 2018-01-01 Jesus said that new wine must be put into new wineskins The new wine is His life that He wants to give us through the Holy Spirit The new wineskin is the new covenant church that He wants to build through us in which this life is to be manifested The old wineskin is a church built on human traditions and not on God's word A group of people meeting together in the Name of Christ somewhere can be just a congregation like the people of Israel were under the old covenant To be a new covenant church these members should be functioning together as one Body And even if they care for one another they may still be just a Christian club if each member does not have an intimate relationship with Christ the Head of the Body To understand the difference between a congregation and a club and a church read this book The Church Beyond the Congregation James Thwaites, 2000 For too long church based activities have been separated from everyday Christian life in the workplace It is time for the church to move beyond its present focus on the congregation It is time to release the church from its containment in meetings and programs and equip it to be the body of Christ in all areas of life and work This is the challenge issued by James Thwaites as he takes an in depth look at the Hebrew worldview revealed in Scripture and applies its understanding of creation to arrive at a new vision of and strategy for the church in a postmodern era The Congregation as Church Kenneth A. Kuntz, 1971
