The Continuing Voice Of Jesus:

The Continuing Voice of Jesus M. Eugene Boring, 1991-01-01 Here M Eugene Boring traces the role that early Christian prophets played in the transmission of sayings of Jesus and in the way these sayings were taken up into the canonical Gospels He also examines Jesus sayings to uncover the imprint that any might bear of having been handed on by early Christian prophets Convincingly he shows that early Christian prophets re presented authentic sayings of Jesus or modified Jesus sayings or even uttered new sayings in the name of the exalted Jesus Clearly written and closely reasoned this book sheds light on a much neglected area of Gospel research

The Wisdom of Jesus Charles W Hedrick, 2017-04-27 How would our understanding of Jesus change if we abandoned our preconceptions and focussed on his words alone How would this wisdom compare with that of ancient Israel and the early first century church Such questions pose serious difficulties Everything in the early Christian gospels is either derived from historical memory or is borrowed or invented argues Charles W Hedrick Of the many sayings attributed to Christ historians can only agree on a few as having been spoken by him and those few are far from certain In The Wisdom of Jesus Hedrick overcomes these challenges presenting a picture of Jesus as expressed through his own words The Jesus that emerges is a lower class man of the first century a complex figure who cannot be considered religious in a traditional sense Liberated from theological explanation and interpretation his discourse is revealed as belonging to the secular world and his concerns to be those of common life

The Oxford Handbook of Christology Francesca Aran Murphy, 2015-09-24 The Oxford Handbook of Christology brings together 40 authoritative essays considering the theological study of the nature and role of Jesus Christ This collection offers dynamic perspectives within the study of Christology and provides rigorous discussion of inter confessional theology which would not have been possible even 60 years ago The first of the seven parts considers Jesus Christ in the Bible Rather than focusing solely on the New Testament this section begins with discussion of the modes of God's self communication to us and suggests that Christ's most original incarnation is in the language of the Hebrew Bible The second section considers Patristics Christology These essays explore the formation of the doctrines of the person of Christ and the atonement between the First Council of Nicaea in 325 and the eve of the Second Council of Nicaea The next section looks at Mediaeval theology and tackles the development of the understanding of who Christ was and of his atoning work The section on Reformation and Christology traces the path of the Reformation from Luther to Bultmann The fifth section tackles the new developments in thinking about Christ which have emerged in the modern and the postmodern eras and the sixth section explains how beliefs about Jesus have affected music poetry and the arts The final part concludes by locating Christology within systematic theology asking how it relates to Christian belief as a whole This comprehensive volume provides an invaluable resource and reference for scholars students and general readers interested in the study of Christology

The Moving Text Garrick V. Allen, Christopher R. Brewer, Dennis F. Kinlaw III, 2018-06-30 Drawing upon the pioneering work of the British theologian David Brown who argues for a non static moving text that reaches beyond the biblical canon this volume brings together twelve interdisciplinary essays as well as a response from Brown With essays ranging from New Testament textual criticism to the fiction of David Foster Wallace The Moving Text provides an introduction to Brown and the Bible that will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as specialists in a wide range of fields Contributions include Ian Boxall The Catholic University of America From the Magi to Pilate's Wife David Brown Tradition and the Reception of Matthew's Text Robert MacSwain The University of the South David Brown and Eleonore Stump on Biblical Interpretation Aaron Rosen Rocky Mountain College Revisions of Sacrifice Abraham in Art and Interfaith Dialogue Dennis F Kinlaw III Houston Baptist University The Forms of Faith in Contemporary American Fiction From the Gospel to the Gospels Petr Pokorný, 2013-01-30 The monograph is devoted to a crucial point of Christian theology its development from the short formulae of the gospel euangelion as the first reflected expressions of Christian faith to the theology of literary Gospels as texts that evoked the idea of Christian canon as a counterpart of the Law and Prophets In the formulae of the oral gospel the apocalyptic expectations are adapted into a doubled or split eschatology The Messiah has appeared but the messianic reign is still the object of expectation The experience with Jesus post Easter impact has been named as resurrection of which God was the subject Since the apocalyptic resurrection applied for many or all people the resurrection of Jesus became a guarantee of hope The last chapters analyze the role of the oral gospel in shaping the earliest literary Gospel Mark This book analyses Gospels as texts that re introduced Jesus traditions into the Christian liturgy and literature Concluding paragraphs are devoted to the titles of the individual Gospels and to the origins of the idea of Christian canon The Gospel of Matthew and the Sayings Source Q Frans Neirynck, Joseph Verheyden, R. Corstjens, 1998 The present Bibliography covers the research on the Gospel of Matthew and on the Gospel Source Q from 1950 to 1995 The new volume has adopted the model of the previously published The Gospel of Mark A Cumulative Bibliography 1950 1990 It contains about 15 000 entries and is arranged alphabetically by name of author the author's works are given in chronological order Each entry includes the complete bibliographical references information about reprints new editions and translations and summary indications of the content Gospel passage subject The companion volume furnishes detailed Indexes of Gospel Passages and Subject matters related to Mt and to Q All indexes are prepared by J Verheyden The Bibliography completes the series of Leuven repertoires on the Gospels published in BETL 82 John 1988 88 Luke 1989 and 102 Mark 1992 The Gospel of Mark Ben Witherington, 2001-01-08 This book offers the first sustained attempt to read the Gospel of Mark both as an ancient biography and as a form of ancient rhetoric Ben Witherington applies to Mark the socio rhetorical approach for which he is well known opening a fresh new perspective on the earliest Gospel Written when the fledgling Christian faith was experiencing a major crisis during the Jewish war Mark provides us with the first window on how the life and teachings of Jesus were presented to a largely non Jewish audience According to Witherington the structure of Mark demonstrates that this Gospel is biographically focused on the identity of Jesus and the importance of knowing who he is the Christ the Son of God This finding reveals that Christology stood at the heart of the earliest Christians faith It also shows how important it was to these earliest Christians to persuade others about the nature of Jesus both as a historical figure and as the Savior of the world Discerning the "Word of the Lord" Michael W. Pahl,2009-05-07 In 1 Thessalonians 4 15 the Apostle Paul appeals to a word of the Lord to provide authority for his eschatological encouragement This appeal has left a perplexing problem related to the nature and function of the specific authority to which the phrase refers Two theories have predominated in the history of interpretation either 1 it refers to a directly received prophetic revelation whether to Paul or to another Christian prophet or 2 it refers to a teaching of Jesus received as tradition whether preserved in the Gospel tradition or otherwise unknown This book investigates this problem from three angles epistemological analysis examining Paul s authorities for his knowledge particularly in his eschatology linguistic analysis including both grammatical and lexical study of the phrase and contextual analysis setting the statement within its historical and literary contexts These approaches converge to suggest a fresh solution to the problem while Paul does appear to employ traditional Christian eschatological teaching in his response to the Thessalonian crisis 4 16 17a the phrase does not refer to this tradition but rather refers to the proclaimed gospel message about Jesus centred on his death and resurrection which forms the theological foundation of Paul s response cf 4 14

Enoch and the Messiah Son of Man Gabriele Boccaccini,2007 Distinguished in the field of Enochic studies Gabriele Boccaccini led the way in June 2005 at the Third Enoch Seminar entirely devoted to the Book of Parables in light of Second Temple Judaism and Christian origins The unusual and compelling collection of essays found here reflects the spirit of sharing and dialogue that has made these seminars so popular and intriguing to scholars throughout the world This third collection of essays from these historic meetings contains the observations and contemplations of forty four scholars includes a helpful introduction by Boccaccini detailing the history of the movement and ends with likely prospects for future research and an extensive bibliography compiled by associate editor Jason von Ehrenkrook for further study Enoch and the Messiah Son of Man will be a significant contribution for the understanding and discussion of ancient Judaism Apocalyptic Imagination in the Gospel of Mark Elizabeth E. Shively,2012-08-31 This narrative study uses Mark 3 22 30 as an interpretive lens to show that the Gospel of Mark has a thoroughly apocalyptic outlook That is Mark 3 22 30 constructs a symbolic world that shapes the Gospel s literary and theological logic Mark utilizes apocalyptic discourse portraying the Spirit filled Jesus in a struggle against Satan to establish the kingdom of God by liberating people to form a community that does God s will This discourse develops throughout the narrative by means of repetition and variation functioning rhetorically to persuade the reader that God manifests power out of suffering rejection and death This book fits among literary studies that focus on Mark as a unified narrative and rhetorical composition and uses narrative analysis as a key tool While narrative approaches to Mark generally offer non apocalyptic readings this study clarifies the symbols metaphors and themes of Mark

3 22 30 in light of the religious and social context in which the Gospel was produced in order to understand Mark's persuasive aims towards the reader. Accordingly, a comparative analysis of Jewish apocalyptic literature informs the use of Mark 3 22 30 as a paradigm for the Gospel.
