Manual for Medical Officers of Health Edward Smith, 1878 Federalism - English Navneet Singh, Federalism refers to a system of government where power is divided and shared between a central authority national or federal government and constituent units such as states or provinces In India federalism plays a significant role in the governance structure as outlined in the Constitution Here s an exploration of federalism in the Indian context Features of Federalism in India Distribution of Powers The Indian Constitution divides powers between the Union central government and the States through three lists Union List Exclusive powers of the central government including defence foreign affairs banking and currency State List Exclusive powers of state governments such as police public health agriculture and local government Concurrent

List Powers shared between the Union and States such as criminal law marriage bankruptcy and education This distribution ensures autonomy for both levels of government in their respective spheres

Supremacy of the Constitution The Indian Constitution is supreme and both the Union and State governments must operate within its framework The judiciary acts as the guardian of the Constitution ensuring that federal principles are upheld and disputes between Union and State jurisdictions are resolved

Dual Polity India operates as a dual polity with governments at the Union and State levels each with its own elected representatives legislative bodies and executive authorities State governments have the power to legislate on matters within their jurisdiction independent of the central government

Cooperative Federalism Collaborative Governance Cooperative federalism emphasizes collaboration and partnership between the Union and State governments to address national issues economic growth and development It promotes joint decision making and coordination in policy formulation and implementation

Inter State Council The Inter State Council established by the Constitution facilitates cooperation among states and between the Union and States on matters of common interest

Challenges and Debates Centre State Relations Tensions often arise over issues like distribution of financial resources legislative authority and administrative powers Disputes may require intervention from the judiciary to clarify constitutional provisions and resolve conflicts

Asymmetry India's federal structure accommodates diverse regional needs and aspirations leading to demands for asymmetric federalism to address unique challenges faced by different states

Conclusion Federalism in India is a dynamic system that balances centralized authority with regional autonomy promoting unity while respecting diversity It provides states with substantial powers to legislate and govern independently in areas vital to local interests while ensuring a cohesive national framework through collaboration and constitutional principles The evolution and effective functioning of federalism are crucial for maintaining democratic governance equitable development and national integration in India
