Thomas Griffiths

The Church In China:

The Church in China Michael D. Suman, 2006 This book addresses the emergence and development of the Chinese church as the body of Christ in China through the historical and sociopolitical context of that nation The focus on the last half of the 20th century is supported by a concise overview of the political history of China from its dynastic era and international influence on its church history The Church in China Paul Rule, 2010-12-31 China has been a challenge to Christianity since the beginning of modern times and it remains so today Here is a great civilisation comprising a quarter of humankind yet largely untouched by Christian values and beliefs Any theological evaluation of the state of world Christianity that does not take China into account is impoverished and radically incomplete The Church in China William Harold Clark, 1969

The Registered Church in China Wayne Ten Harmsel, 2021-03-09 In The Registered Church in China Wayne Ten Harmsel pulls back for Western readers the shroud of mystery surrounding Chinese registered churches Through interviews with Chinese pastors evangelists and lay Christians he provides a rare view of what it means to live in the shadow of both the government and the well known house churches Registered churches have received criticism from both of these sources as well as from many churches in other countries particularly the United States Ten Harmsel examines the charges leveled against registered churches and presents a balanced picture of the complexity of the church situation in China Such complexity arises for instance in the registered churches struggle to respond to new religious regulations and the controversy over Sinicization China has become a major center of twenty first century Christianity and despite how little is known about registered churches in the West these congregations play a significant role in shaping Chinese Christianity today The Church in Red China "leans to One Side" Samuel E. Boyle, 1950 China and the True Jesus Melissa Wei-Tsing Inouye, 2018-12-03 In 1917 the Beijing silk merchant Wei Enbo's vision of Jesus sparked a religious revival characterized by healings exorcisms tongues speaking and most provocatively a call for a return to authentic Christianity that challenged the Western missionary establishment in China This revival gave rise to the True Jesus Church China's first major native denomination The church was one of the earliest Chinese expressions of the twentieth century charismatic and Pentecostal tradition which is now the dominant mode of twenty first century Chinese Christianity To understand the faith of millions of Chinese Christians today we must understand how this particular form of Chinese community took root and flourished even throughout the wrenching changes and dislocations of the past century The church's history links together key themes in modern Chinese social history such as longstanding cultural exchange between China and the West imperialism and globalization game changing advances in transport and communications technology and the relationship between religious movements and the state in the late Qing circa 1850 1911 Republican 1912 1949 and Communist 1950 present day eras Vivid storytelling highlights shifts and tensions within Chinese society on a human scale How did mounting foreign incursions and domestic crises pave the way for Wei Enbo a rural farmhand to become a wealthy merchant in the early 1900s Why did women in the 1920s and 30s such as an orphaned girl named Yang Zhendao devote themselves so wholeheartedly to a patriarchal religious system What kinds of pressures induced church leaders in a meeting in the 1950s to agree that Comrade Stalin had saved many more people than Jesus This book tells the striking but also familiar tale of the promise and peril attending the collective pursuit of the extraordinary how individuals within the True Jesus Church in China over the past century have sought to muster divine and human resources to transform their world Come Wind, Come Weather Leslie T. Lyall, 2011-12 The Church in China Donald William Richardson, 1929 The Church in China in the 20th Century Chen Zemin, 2019-03-11 While the Peoples Republic of China is officially an atheist country Christianity continues to experience rapid growth on the Chinese mainland Many observers see the country as on the way to becoming the world s most Christian nation Yet there is widespread ignorance in the English speaking world about how the Chinese Christian community fared during the decades prior to China s opening up to the West in the aftermath of the historic visit of Richard Nixon to Beijing in 1972 This collection of essays the first of them published in 1939 provides an invaluable record of developments in mainland Chinese Christianity during that period and for the remaining decades of the twentieth century The fact that the essays were all authored by a key participant in the Protestant churches in China provides significant added value Professor Chen discusses a wide range of important topics various stages of rural and urban development the Three Self principles for structuring officially sanctioned worshipping communities Bishop K H Ting s advocacy of a genuinely indigenous Chinese theology patterns of international cooperation worship seminary education and much more These essays make a unique and significant contribution to the Western understanding of Asian religious life in the twentieth century Reconstructing Christianity in China Philip L. Wickeri, 2015-03-04
