Colour, Healing and the Human Soul Gladys Mayer,2019-11-06 In a delightful study originally comprising two separate booklets the accomplished artist and teacher Gladys Mayer explains that colour is nothing other than the very substance of the soul Just as the body is made up of mineral water air and warmth so the soul is made up of colour This is revealed in the emotions of sadness and joy and the many shades in between as expressed in human language for example seeing red rose coloured spectacles and jaundiced view Mayer discusses the basis of colour theory and its methodology and the importance of colour for everyday life and health It is as fundamental to the soul as air is to the body By increasing our awareness of the spiritual laws of colour we can acquire a balanced and enriched life of soul Thus colour can become a healing force in life enabling us to tackle the deadening grey aspects of our mechanised civilisation Based on the work of Rudolf Steiner which she studied intensively for many years Mayer offers an approach to colour that is of value to painters and artists as well as to those interested in psychology health and healing spirituality and personal development
