The Condor Passes:

Voices from Louisiana Ann Brewster Dobie, 2018-03-21 Voices from Louisiana provides thoughtful timely profiles of some of the state's most highly regarded and popular contemporary authors. Readers interested in Louisiana's rich literary tradition will appreciate these evocative essays on writers whose works emanate from the cultures and landscapes of the Gulf South. Ann Brewster Dobie explores the works of eleven well-known authors and concludes with a look at several emerging talents. These writers work in a broad range of genres from coming-of-age stories and historical narratives that recover the voices of silenced and oppressed peoples to crime thrillers set in New Iberia and New Orleans to poetic invocations of the natural world and narratives capturing the realities of working-class lives. Whether native to the state or transplants, these writers produce works that reflect the vibrant culture that defines the intricate literary landscape of the Pelican State. Dobie highlights the careers of Darrell Bourque, James Lee Burke, Ernest Gaines, Tim Gautreaux, Shirley Ann Grau, Greg Guirard, William Joyce, Julie Kane, Tom Piazza, Martha Serpas, and James Wilcox. Newcomers also profiled include Wiley Cash, Ashley Mace, Havird, Anne L. Simon, Katy Simpson Smith, Ashley Weaver, Steve Weddle, and Ken Wheaton.

The Smiles of the World Laurence Cole, PhD, Laurence Cole, 2012-11 This is a book of wonderful smiles from all over the world and incredible stories. It is hard to look at the book and not smile. A book like this is a coffee table book to cheer anybody up. It may be also placed in hospital, school, or nursing home to cheer people up.

LIFE, 1971-09-17 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century. It now lives on at LIFE.com, the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet. Users can browse, search, and view photos of today's people and events. They have free access to share print and post images for personal use.

Literary New Orleans in the Modern World Richard S. Kennedy, 2006-03-21 Cleanth Brooks may have summarized it best: New Orleans has become one of the cities of the mind and is therefore immortal. Its writers make it so. Like Richard S. Kennedy's earlier collection Literary New Orleans, these nine essays explore the belletristic Crescent City, its history, authors, myths, and realities. This volume focuses on twentieth-century New Orleans, beginning with modernism's brief blooming in the 1920s, followed by the fading of New Orleans's peculiarly dreamy romanticism and the flourishing of a distinctive realism, and concluding with a recurrence and transformation of the earlier romantic strain in contemporary Gothic and mystery fiction. Literary New Orleans in the Modern World provides chapters in the history of a unique American city, written in the very spirit of New Orleans as it has cast its spell on writers.

La Musica Bonnie Carol, 2018-10-29 Author Bonnie Carol learned first-hand about soulful Latin American music as she grew up along the Texas-Mexico border. In this book, she takes familiar and obscure Latin American tunes and pieces influenced by Latin music and arranges them for hammered dulcimer and, in some cases, fretted dulcimer with tablature as well. She draws from a repertoire including Argentinean tangos, Andean panpipe music, Mexican mariachi music, Central American marimba music, and music of the Chicano culture of the Southwest.

Hearts of Pine Joshua D. Pilzer, 2012-02-10

In the wake of the wartime experience of sexual slavery for the Japanese military during the Asia Pacific War 1930-45 Korean survivors lived under great pressure not to speak about what had happened to them. These sexual slaves were known as comfort women and this book brings us into the lives of three of them. Moving on Susan S. Kissel, 1996. A background synthesis freshly discussing the work of Chopin McCullers, O'Connor, Mitchell, and Welty leads to extended treatment of the novels of Shirley Ann Grau whose protagonists keepers of the house remain their fathers' daughters, of Anne Tyler whose characters are fatherless and homeless at home, and Gail Godwin whose daughter heroines learn the necessity of autonomy.

José Carlos Mariátegui Deni Alfaro Rubbo, 2024-09-30. This volume explores the life, work, and impact of the Peruvian thinker José Carlos Mariátegui (1894-1930), particularly his political biography, his intellectual production, and his critique of Eurocentrism. This posthumous fame is based on the idea that in the whole of his political-theoretical project, the relationship between Latin America and Marxism was not built using a mechanical linking of effects and causes, of the blatant copy of the theory produced in Europe of the immediate application of positivist formulas. In this complex relationship, enigmatic and insinuating, a dissonant historical temporality emerged in Latin America. The apparently unbalanced temporalities marked the matrix of capitalist exploitation but also present in Mariátegui's view glimmers of future possibilities. This book is essential reading for scholars of social sciences and history interested in understanding the historical roots and political dilemmas of Latin American and European societies from the unique perspective of one of the greatest thinkers of the twentieth century.

Rock N Roll Gold Rush Maury Dean, 2003. An appreciation of Rock n Roll song by song from its roots and its inspirations to its divergent recent trends. A work of rough genius. Dean OCOs attempt to make connections through time and across genres is laudable.

The Birds World Nicolae Sfetcu, 2021-10-25. Birds are among the most extensively studied of all animal groups. Hundreds of academic journals and thousands of scientists are devoted to bird research, while amateur enthusiasts called birdwatchers or more commonly birders probably number in the millions. Birds are categorised as a biological class, Aves. The earliest known species of this class is Archaeopteryx lithographica from the Late Jurassic period. According to the most recent consensus, Aves and a sister group, the order Crocodilia, together form a group of unnamed rank, the Archosauria. Phylogenetically, Aves is usually defined as all descendants of the most recent common ancestor of modern birds or of a specific modern bird species like Passer domesticus and Archaeopteryx. Modern phylogenies place birds in the dinosaur clade Theropoda. Modern birds are divided into two superorders: the Paleognathae (mostly flightless birds like ostriches) and the wildly diverse Neognathae containing all other birds.
