The Contemporary Muslim Movement In The Philippines:

The Contemporary Muslim Movement in the Philippines Cesar Adib Majul,1985 The Contemporary Muslim Movement in the Philippines Cesar Adib Majul,1985-01-01 Contemporary Radical Islam as a Consequence of Traditional Legacies and Globalization? Tonya M. Klempp,2006 The most recent wave of Islamic revivalism began in the second half of the twentieth century as a nonviolent movement of expressing ideological differences and discontent with the political economic and social condition among Muslims and inspired a reformation of the Muslim identity Today contemporary radical Islam with militancy and terrorist tactics as its cornerstone has all but overshadowed the call for a nonviolent struggle and has permeated several internal conflicts across the globe The Muslim separatist movement in the southern Philippines is one such conflict Following decades of discontent and sporadic violence armed conflict broke out in late 1972 when the Moro National Liberation Front MNLF launched coordinated attacks against the government Following a failed peace agreement in 1976 divisions began to form within the MNLF and in 1984 the Moro Islamic Liberation Front MILF was established The MILF as the name indicates placed more emphasis on Islam In 1991 the radical Abu Sayyaf group ASG broke off from the MNLF claiming as its main purpose the establishment of an Islamic state By the mid 1990s what had originated as a nationalistic struggle advocating the concept of the Moro identity had evolved and produced two increasingly radical groups After conducting a diachronic comparative analysis this thesis concludes contemporary radical Islam in the southern Philippines is a fusion of both traditionalism and globalization Furthermore the causal factors evolved with respect to each group s ideology objectives and tactics Whereas the MILF was more representative of the legacy of traditional Islam the ASG was much more a product of globalization Shapers of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhd. Khairudin Aljunied,Khairudin Aljunied,2022 Shapers of Islam in Southeast Asia captures the progressive and pluralistic nature of Islamic reformism in Southeast Asia from the mid twentieth century onwards a period that can now be regarded as the age of networked Islam The book shows how several influential Muslim intellectuals have given rise to an Islamic reformist mosaic in Southeast Asia A Modern History of the Islamic World Reinhard Schulze,2002-03 Considering the Islamic world from Morocco to Indonesia Somalia and Bosnia Schulze Islamic studies U of Berne charts their histories during the 20th century Rather than taking each one in turn he narrates chronologically the political changes throughout the world where Islam is the dominant cultural force He begins with the impact of colonialism and ends with struggle between Islamic culture and civil society in the 1990s He includes several maps Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Transforming Violent Political Movements Kevin E. Grisham,2014-03-21 This book explores the factors that influence violent rebellious political organisations to transform into other entities such as political parties criminal organisations and terrorist organisations From the end of the Second World War until 1990 many events in the world centred on the bipolar struggle between the United States and the USSR Although there were numerous civil wars occurring during the Cold War era many of these conflicts went virtually unnoticed unless they were linked to the Cold War struggle for ideological dominance In the aftermath of the fall of the Soviet Union the number of intra state conflicts was prevalent around the globe Along with the occurrence of civil wars a variety of violent political movements also developed Examining cases from Latin America Africa Europe and Asia this book addresses how violent political movements transform during and after conflict into new types of organisations using the collective political violence transformative CPVT model The study uses a combination of pre existing literature from the fields of sociology and political science archival research and interviews with movement members former and active conducted by the author In studying the Provisional IRA and Sinn F in the Spear of the Nation MK and the African National Congress ANC the Abu Sayyaf Group and the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia FARC EP Transforming Violent Political Movements paints a picture of organisations that have to respond to their environments to survive This book will be of much interest to students of political violence terrorism war and conflict studies security studies and IR

Islam in an Era of Nation-States Robert W. Hefner, Patricia Horvatic, 1997-09-01 The renewal of the Muslim faith which has occurred not only in Asia but in other parts of the world has prompted warnings of an imminent clash of civilizations between Islam and the West Islam in an Era of Nation States examines the history politics and meanings of this resurgence in Indonesia Malaysia and the Philippines and explores its implications for Southeast Asia the larger Muslim world and the West This volume will be of interest to students of Islam Southeast Asian history and the anthropology of religion In examining the politics and meanings of Islamic resurgence it will also speak to political scientists religious scholars and others concerned with culture and politics in the late modern era

The Internationalization of Internal Conflicts Amy L. Freedman, 2016-04-29 Internal security crises from environmental disaster extreme poverty and deprivation armed conflicts or ethnic or religious conflict provide sites of opportunity for those seeking to internationalize conflicts Domestic conflicts in Africa the Middle East and Southeast Asia have started as internal problems but have taken on regional and international dimensions as parties to the conflict within the country and sympathetic external forces have joined forces with each other for mutual gain This book examines the international dimension to internal conflicts and asks under what conditions do domestic conflicts become opportunities for regional or global actors to become involved Why have some countries been able to successfully deal with this problem while others have not Who are the actors who seek to internationalize conflicts Why and with what means do they become involved and how do their agendas get internalized localized Cases include the separatist movements in the Philippines Southern Thailand Aceh Indonesia and the civil wars in Rwanda Congo and Sierra Leone Liberia Lebanon and Iraq This book finds that a combination of greater democratization internally coupled with constructive outside mediation efforts can produce conditions necessary to prevent conflicts from escalating or diffusing and can facilitate peace building Several chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Asian Security

Religion & Identity Politics: Global Trends And Local Realities Mathews Mathew, Melvin

Tay,2021-06-18 Discourse on fundamentalism has gained much attention in recent years particularly in a post 9 11 context where extremist or terrorist threats are more prominent perilous and pervasive This edited volume seeks to spotlight the perspectives of academics and practitioners vis vis global trends in religious fundamentalism and right wing extremism over the past decade It presents a collection of works from notable academics and practitioners including a selection of case studies from Asia to illustrate the contemporary interplay of religion politics and identity alongside broader global trends of religious fundamentalism The chapters that follow attempt to trace the sources and factors that led to the dramatic rise in these powerful forces of faith which influence societies and politics around the world Together they present a carefully curated narrative of the interplay of religion and identity politics globally and across Asia The prevailing differences in demographics history and the extent of ethno religious diversity across country contexts are perused across each chapter and the ensuing circumstances deliberated upon As these circumstances change the ways people interpret their identities engage in politics and navigate their religion will also evolve How we manage the effects of religious fundamentalism must hence begin with an understanding of how religion identity and politics interact and this is what the upcoming chapters seek to illustrate

A Muslim Archipelago Max L. Gross,2007 This book is with a contemporary focus Author Dr Max Gross s purpose is to use history to explain today s Islamic insurgencies in Indonesia Malaysia Thailand and the Philippines and to offer perspectives for the future Muslim Archipalego s unique contribution is that it brings together in one reference a mass of information on the insurgencies in Southeast Asia The country accounts are detailed and thorough as to events organizations dates and participants The chronological context provides Dr Gross the opportunity to give insights about historical casualty His accounting highlights the interaction of the insurgencies within Southeast Asia and their international connection outside the region The detailed presentations in the chapters on Indonesia and Philippines are especially fruitful Included in this nearly 280 page book are detailed four color regional maps charts and historical photos spread throughout the text An extensive bibliography and index are included
