The Hidden Life Of Tirol:

The Hidden Life of Tirol Martha Coonfield Ward, 1993 This text is an ethnography that describes how the people of this high mountain region put meaning into their collective lives how they organize the social structure of mountain survival In addition the author describes how the Tiroleans have suffered solved major ethnic problems House Life Donna Birdwell-Pheasant, Denise Lawrence-Züniga, 2020-06-04 This book which fills a gap on the materiality of lived relations examines households within the context of their immediate physical surroundings of home and shows how human interactions are reflected in built forms Houses are dynamic participants in family life in many ways They often pre date the origins and outlast the life spans of their inhabitants but they can exert a powerful influence on the organization of behaviors and the values of family members as well as on the forms and flows of family life across the generations Constituting wealth investment security and inheritance they are an objective in and of themselves in many domestic strategies Drawing on developments within anthropology archaeology architecture and social history the authors demonstrate through detailed case studies how household or family relations can usefully be mined to re situate social theory in both space and time Space boundaries family cycles historic changes migration patterns ethnicity memory and gender are all interrogated for the light they shed on how people interact with the physical world around them and what this means culturally and symbolically Europe is an especially rich focus for this kind of analysis because it is distinguished by its long well documented history and a recent period of intense change Conceiving the New World Order Faye D. Ginsburg, Rayna Rapp, 1995-07-31 This volume provides an investigation of the dynamics of reproduction Using reproduction as an entry point the authors examine how cultures are produced contested and transformed as people imagine their collective future in the creation of the next generation One Europe, Many Nations James B. Minahan, 2000-07-30 Dominating world politics since 1945 the Cold War created a fragile peace while suppressing national groups in the Cold War s most dangerous theater Europe Today with the collapse of Communism the European Continent is again overshadowed by the specter of radical nationalism as it was at the beginning of the century Focusing on the many possible conflicts that dot the European landscape this book is the first to address the Europeans as distinct national groups not as nation states and national minorities It is an essential guide to the national groups populating the so called Old World groups that continue to dominate world headlines and present the world community with some of its most intractable conflicts While other recent reference books on Europe approach the subject of nations and nationalism from the perspective of the European Union and the nation state this book addresses the post Cold War nationalist resurgence by focusing on the most basic element of any nationalism the nation It includes entries on nearly 150 groups surveying these groups from the earliest period of their national histories to the dawn of the 21st century In short essays highlighting the political social economic and historical evolution of peoples claiming a distinct identity in an increasingly integrated continent the book provides both up to date information and historical background on the European national groups that are currently making the news and those that will produce future headlines The Voodoo Encyclopedia Jeffrey E. Anderson, 2015-08-26 This compelling reference work introduces the religions of Voodoo a onetime faith of the Mississippi River Valley and Vodou a Haitian faith with millions of adherents today Unlike its fictional depiction in zombie films and popular culture Voodoo is a full fledged religion with a pantheon of deities a priesthood and communities of believers Drawing from the expertise of contemporary practitioners this encyclopedia presents the history culture and religion of Haitian Vodou and Mississippi Valley Voodoo Though based primarily in these two regions the reference looks at Voodoo across several cultures and delves into related religions including African Vodun African Diasporic Religions and magical practices like hoodoo Through roughly 150 alphabetical entries the work describes various aspects of Voodoo in Louisiana and Haiti covering topics such as important places traditions rituals and items used in ceremonies Contributions from scholars in the field provide a comprehensive overview of the subject from various perspectives and address the deities and ceremonial acts The book features an extensive collection of primary sources and a selected general bibliography of print and electronic resources Native Tours Erve Chambers, 2019-06-20 Previous editions of Native Tours provided a much needed overview and analysis of anthropology s contributions to tourism as an emerging field of study Such a cultural perspective illuminated key ideas surrounding worldwide host guest relations and informed discussions of political and economic influences and the impacts both negative and positive of tourism as one of the world s largest industries Applying a characteristically uncluttered authoritative writing style alongside an exceptional command of the relevant literature Chambers updates refines and extends his earlier work He retains a focus on the social cultural economic and environmental consequences of tourism and provides a framework for understanding tourism initiatives in their particular circumstances Three detailed case studies originating in the American Southwest the Tirolean Alps and Belize illustrate the varied costs and benefits of tourism The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Management Chris Cooper, Serena Volo, William C. Gartner, Noel Scott, 2021-08-04 The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Management is a critical authoritative review of tourism management written by leading international thinkers and academics in the field Arranged over two volumes the chapters are framed as critical synoptic pieces covering key developments current issues and debates and emerging trends and future considerations for the field The two volumes focus in turn on the theories concepts and disciplines that underpin tourism management in volume one followed by examinations of how those ideas and concepts have been applied in the second volume Chapters are structured around twelve key themes Volume One Part One Researching Tourism Part Two Social Analysis Part Three Economic Analysis Part Four Technological Analysis Part Five Environmental Analysis Part Six Political Analysis Volume Two Part One Approaching Tourism Part Two Destination Applications Part Three Marketing Applications Part Four Tourism Product Markets Part Five Technological Applications Part Six Environmental Applications This handbook offers a fresh contemporary and definitive look at tourism management making it an essential resource for academics researchers and students The Remote Borderland Laszlo Kurti, 2001-07-19 Explores how Transylvania figures in the Hungarian imagination and how this border region functions in the creation of national identity Nest in the Wind Martha C. Ward, 2004-10-21 During her first visit to the beautiful island of Pohnpei in the middle of the Pacific Ocean anthropologist Martha Ward discovered people who grew quarter ton yams in secret and ritually shared a powerful drink called kava She managed a medical research project ate dog became pregnant and responded to spells placed on her Thirty years later she returned to Pohnpei to learn what had happened there since her first visit Were islanders still relaxed and casual about sex Were they still obsessed with titles and social rank Was the island still lush and beautiful Had the inhabitants remained healthy This second edition of Wards best selling account is a rare longitudinal study that tracks people processes and a place through decades of change It is also an intimate record of doing fieldwork that immerses readers in the sights smells tastes sounds and the sensory richness of Pohnpei Ward addresses the ageless ethnographic questions about family life politics religion traditional medicine magic and death together with contemporary concerns about postcolonial survival the discontinuities of culture and adaptation to the demands of a global age Her insightful discoveries illuminate the evolution of a culture possibly distant from yet important to people living in other parts of the world Iceman Brenda Fowler, 2001-09-16 Featuring a new Afterword this is the spectacular story of the 1991 discovery of a Stone Age man in the Alps a lonely frozen figure who offers clues about the world of 3000 B C 33 halftones 21st Century Anthropology: A Reference Handbook H. James Birx, 2010-06-10 21st Century Anthropology A Reference Handbook highlights the most important topics issues questions and debates any student obtaining a degree in the field of anthropology ought to have mastered for effectiveness in the 21st century This two volume set provides undergraduate majors with an authoritative reference source that serves their research needs with more detailed information than encyclopedia entries but in a clear accessible style devoid of jargon unnecessary detail or density Key Features Emphasizes key curricular topics making it useful for students researching for term papers preparing for GREs or considering topics for a senior thesis graduate degree or career Comprehensive providing full coverage of key subthemes and subfields within the discipline such as applied anthropology archaeology and paleontology sociocultural anthropology evolution linguistics physical and biological anthropology primate studies and more Offers uniform chapter structure so students can easily locate key information within these sections Introduction Theory Methods Applications Comparison Future Directions Summary Bibliography Suggestions for Further Reading and Cross References Available in print or electronically at SAGE Reference Online providing students with convenient easy access to its contents A Sounding of Women Martha Coonfield Ward, 1998 KEY BENEFIT So often it is difficult to find a collection of autobiographical stories from uniquely different women of varied cultures Generally women s stories are untold unheard or unrecorded however no more elegant tool exists to describe the human condition than narrative Written by an anthropologist who designed the first official Women s Studies course in Louisiana this book has been fueled by the explosion of fascinating research on women since the 1970s Collected Wisdom explores and validates the experiences of women around the world through the autobiographical stories of seven women from different cultures The author has taken each of these stories put them into perspective and related them to larger themes and issues Fascinating autobiographies of interest to anthropologists psychologists sociologists and women from all walks of life Endangered Peoples of Europe Jean Forward, 2001-02-28 Profiles more than 12 endangered peoples ranging from the Scottish Highlanders the Basques in Spain the former Yugoslavians to the Cypriots The Business of Marriage Richard A. Marksbury, 1993 This collection of essays represents a cross cultural examination of the transformation of indigenous marriage patterns among South Pacific peoples in response to modernising forces such as colonial governments urbanisation the establishment of a cash economy compulsory education and the changing roles of women The essays explore societies in Micronesia Melanesia and Polynesia The field work ranges from the study of bride wealth inflation in the highlands of Papua New Guinea where contact with the Western world is quite recent to marrying for resident visas in urban Fiji SAE Bulletin, 1991 Europe in the Anthropological Imagination Susan Parman, 1998 Europe in the Anthropological Imagination is a provocative reflective book about how American anthropologists study Europe The book is composed of fourteen essays by twelve anthropologists who have worked in Europe for at least twenty years These anthropologists were asked to address how when where and why they began to study Europe and to consider what this implied for the development of anthropology in general since anthropology is traditionally identified as a field that studies the non western exotic Other Back cover A World Full of Women Martha Coonfield Ward, 1999 Offers a thought provoking yet accessible introduction to women's issues in anthropology exploring and validating woman centered experiences and illuminating the common grounds of being female around the world Material draws on ethnography autobiography journalism and research with chapters on Riches and Regrets Patricia A. Stokowski, 1996 In the history of Central City and Black Hawk Colorado there have been three great moments exceeding all capacity for imagination and prediction the discovery of gold in 1859 the renewal of Central City's opera in 1932 and the opening of casino gaming in 1991 Gambling was adopted to stimulate the local economy and bring new riches to the Gilpin County towns replicating the accomplishments of previous mining and opera times Yet it was not long after gambling was approved that residents began expressing regrets over what they had lost in the transformation of their community In Riches and Regrets Patricia Stokowski traces the development of contemporary Gilpin County gambling from the proposal and campaign stage in 1989 and 1990 through the construction period leading to the opening of casinos in October 1991 and across several years of post opening impacts Combining critical historical perspectives with sociological analyses Stokowski documents the economic social cultural and institutional effects of the gaming development concluding that gambling has produced mixed results for the Gilpin County towns With gambling becoming increasingly popular as an economic development strategy in both rural and urban communities across America Riches and Regrets can provide lessons for other communities seeking their own golden dreams at the card tables and slot machines Being Human Mari Womack, 1998 This lively innovative book presents cultural anthropology as an adventure focusing on students curiosity about their own participation in humanness and incorporating the excitement of field discoveries throughout Anthropology is presented as a human centered discipline rather than as an abstract conceptual system The Brokered Image Kelli Ann Costa, 2001 This book presents the brokered image a constructed identity influenced by tourism and the global economy expressed through a variety of displays and performances in rural Tyrol This image of old world simplicity complicates interactions between and among hosts and guests as evidenced in this small mountain village in Austria
