The Christian Struggle For A New Society:

The Christian Struggle For A New Society Carlos Evaristo da Gama,2002 The Indian Church Of The Future Kurien Kunnumparam,S.J.,2007 The Christian Programme Joseph Pathrapankal,2005-05-16 What does it mean to be a Christian in our times in a world come of age where Christians all over the world have to face the challenge posed by religious pluralism and secular humanism and even the challenge of a so called religionless Christianity in a postmodern era Answers to this question can be varied and all of them point to something more crucial and radical This basic question is to be approached from an equally radical answer given by Jesus of Nazareth in the Sermon on the Mount Matt 5 1 7 29 wherein we get the blueprint of an authentic programme of life for all humans The theological and pastoral study of this major discourse of Jesus highlights the parameters of a responsible and committed life The Destruction of the Christian Tradition Rama P. Coomaraswamy,2006-01-27 Concentrating on the post Vatican II revisions of its teachings this book tells the story of the destruction of the Roman Catholic tradition a defining event of the twentieth century Ethnic Realities and the Church Donald Anderson McGavran,1979 Expect Great Things is the most comprehensive collection of mission quotes contemporary and classical ever compiled in one book Here you will find over 700 of the best mission quotes ever uttered by Great Commission Christians 250 different authors from Adoniram Judson to John Piper from J Hudson Taylor to David Platt Read them for personal encouragement Paste them on your website blog or other social media Tweet them to a friend Include them in sermons speeches newsletters and lesson plans Pass them on to others to encourage them along their way to Great Commission familiarity and commitment Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss,2014-04-17 In Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss analyzes the many rich and complex strands of Asian religious thought on the notion and nature of the path toward liberation As he shows Asian liberation theology departs significantly from the Latin American model with which it is commonly compared Rather than put primary emphasis on economic issues Asian cultures give much greater priority to the role of religion in the composition of a healthy society In Part One Amaladoss discusses current liberation movements and thought in Korea the Philippines and India In two other chapters he shows also that the awakening of women is integral to the search for human freedom and development and the growing importance sound ecological policies in any valid approach to liberation in Asia In Part Two Amaladoss discusses non Christian approaches to human liberation and freedom showing how the lives and thought of influential figures of other faiths have given distinctive shape to Asian approaches to liberation Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Hindus such as Mahatma Gandhi and E V Ramaswamy show that hostility to religion is remote from the most characteristic Asian liberation movements Gandhi s entire politics was rooted in the notion that to attain Truth or to realize God is the goal of human life But God for Gandhi is realized concretely in the world and particularly in other people Service to others then becomes a way to God and ultimately to human liberation Similarly Confucian traditions embody a deeply indigenous Asian way of constructing reality as a sacred whole In that construct liberation and freedom take on meanings and dimensions functionally religious in the way they anchor individuals and the community to the cosmic whole In Part Three Amaladoss gives his own analysis and prophetic overview on how the plurality of images of liberation enriches the possibility for interreligious cooperation in overcoming the forces of oppression in Asia Possessed by the Virgin Kristin C. Bloomer, 2017-11-10 In the early 1980s in a rural village in South India a Dalit woman miscarried She hovered on the edge of death until the Virgin Mary led her to a chapel and possessed her For years hundreds of ailing Catholics and Hindus came to this woman for healing and Mary made them well Two decades later in the metropolis of Chennai a boy named Alex lay in his hospital bed sick with fever when the Virgin Mary appeared to him and told him to walk He did and at home he felt Mary enter his body Soon his older cousin Rosalind also showed signs of Marian possession Mary told them that her name was Jecintho Within three years another young woman in Chennai also became possessed by Jecintho and began exhibiting signs of stigmata blood flowing from her hands and eyes Possessed by the Virgin is an ethnographic account of Marian possession healing and exorcism among Catholics and Hindus in southeast India Following the lives of three Tamil Roman Catholic women for more than a decade Kristin C Boomer attends to the women's own descriptions of their experience with Marian possession as well as to those of the people who came to them for healing Her book investigates how possession is possible and in what contexts such experiences can be read as authentic Roman Catholic officials have responded in various ways banning certain activities while promoting others Their responses reflect the complicated relationship of the Roman Catholic Church with non Christian religious practices on the Indian subcontinent where possession a term introduced by missionaries involving deities and spirits has long been commonplace and where gods goddesses and spirits have long inhabited people This ground sets the stage for Bloomer to explore questions of agency gender subjectivity and power and the complex interconnection between the ethnographic Self and the Other
