A New Moral Vision Andrea L. Turpin, 2016-08-25 In A New Moral Vision Andrea L Turpin explores how the entrance of women into U S colleges and universities shaped changing ideas about the moral and religious purposes of higher education in unexpected ways and in turn profoundly shaped American culture In the decades before the Civil War evangelical Protestantism provided the main impetus for opening the highest levels of American education to women Between the Civil War and World War I however shifting theological beliefs a growing cultural pluralism and a new emphasis on university research led educators to reevaluate how colleges should inculcate an ethical outlook in students just as the proportion of female collegians swelled In this environment Turpin argues educational leaders articulated a new moral vision for their institutions by positioning them within the new landscape of competing men s women s and coeducational colleges and universities In place of fostering evangelical conversion religiously liberal educators sought to foster in students a surprisingly more gendered ideal of character and service than had earlier evangelical educators Because of this moral reorientation the widespread entrance of women into higher education did not shift the social order in as egalitarian a direction as we might expect Instead college graduates who formed a disproportionate number of the leaders and reformers of the Progressive Era contributed to the creation of separate male and female cultures within Progressive Era public life and beyond Drawing on extensive archival research at ten trend setting men s women s and coeducational colleges and universities A New Moral Vision illuminates the historical intersection of gender ideals religious beliefs educational theories and social change in ways that offer insight into the nature and cultural consequences of the moral messages communicated by institutions of higher education today The Promise of Lutheran Ethics Karen L. Bloomquist, John R. Stumme, 1998-08-01 Here ten Lutheran theologians explore Lutheran emphases themes and approaches to offer their account of Christian ethics as a way of life in today s world Writing in dialogue they raise foundational concerns of biblical and theological sources and norms of Christian freedom and responsibility of call and social witness of justice and formation in prayer Then in a lively Table Talk the participants discuss and debate the tradition s insights and oversights and show how it might illumine today s burning ethical issues such as homosexuality Vision and Virtue Stanley Hauerwas, 2025-02-15 Christian Ethics has been far too concerned with ethical decision making It would seem that both the advocates of situation ethics with their ever more outlandish paradigms and the proponents of traditional moral theology with their carefully qualified abstract deliberations have focused too narrowly upon the individual faced with a moral choice This collection of essays comes as a much needed change Whereas others have bemoaned the state of Christian ethics today Hauerwas has attempted to work out a serious alternative to the situationists and to the traditional moral theologians The book is divided into three parts The first and perhaps most important deals with theoretical and methodological issues The second under the title the new morality and normative ethics applies his method to a number of areas of individual morality such as abortion and euthanasia The third tackles certain problems in social ethics namely the non resistant church politics and American culture Retrieving the Natural Law J. Daryl Charles, 2008-04-14 J Daryl Charles argues that a traditional metaphysics of natural law lies at the heart of the present reconstructive project and that a revival in natural law thinking is of the highest priority for the Christian community as we contend in rather than abdicate the public square Nowhere is this more on display than in the realm of bioethics where the most basic moral questions human personhood human rights versus responsibilities the reality of moral evil the basis of civil society are being debated from publisher description Joseph Ratzinger in Communio, Volume 2 Pope Benedict XVI, 2013-01-30 Brings together articles by Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger previously published in the North American edition of Communio International Catholic Review Growing in Christian Morality Julia Ahlers, Barbara Allaire, Carl Koch, 1996 A Christian morality course designed to be part of the religion curriculum within a Catholic high school The course focuses on character development Essays on the Christian Worldview and Others Political, Literary, and Philosophical Andrew J. Schatkin, 2012-07-10 This collection of essays and thoughts covers such areas as basic Christian thought which includes traditional family morality and a great concern for alleviating poverty and promoting social justice political thought comparing the need for a system which includes both socialist and capitalist elements and the need for values in our society which has come to emphasize money power and greed as philosophical goals and values though they are not The book also has thoughts concerning literature a consideration of what constitutes true progress the denial in our society of any absolute moral truth and the substitution of moral relativism as a mistaken ethical system
