The Church And The Age Of Reason 1648 1789:

The Church and the Age of Reason, 1648-1789 Gerald Robertson Cragg, 1970 This span in the history of the Christian Church stretches from the age of religious and civil strife which existed before the middle of the seventeenth century to the age of industrialism and republicanism which followed the French Revolution and the beginning of the Napoleonic wars The Church in general reacting strongly against the turbulences of the Civil War and the Thirty Years War placed a premium on order moderation and stability Movements suspected of enthusiasm such as Puritanism Quietism and Jansenism fell into disrepute and the authority exercised by the state in religious affairs became more pronounced It was an age dominated by Reason which until it provoked a reaction in such movements as Pietism and Evangelicalism posed a formidable threat to Christianity

Gerald Robertson Cragg, 1960 The Enlightenment and religion S. J. Barnett, 2013-07-19 This book offers a critical survey of religious change and its causes in eighteenth century Europe and constitutes a challenge to the accepted views in traditional Enlightenment studies Focusing on Enlightenment Italy France and England it illustrates how the canonical view of eighteenth century religious change has in reality been constructed upon scant evidence and assumption in particular the idea that the thought of the enlightened led to modernity For despite a lack of evidence one of the fundamental assumptions of Enlightenment studies has been the assertion that there was a vibrant Deist movement which formed the intellectual solvent of the eighteenth century The central claim of this book is that the immense ideological appeal of the traditional birth of modernity myth has meant that the actual lack of Deists has been glossed over and a quite misleading historical view has become entrenched An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence
