The Cinema of Eisenstein David Bordwell, 1993 The Cinema of Eisenstein is David Bordwell's comprehensive analysis of the films of Sergei Eisenstein arguably the key figure in the entire history of film The director of such classics as Potemkin Ivan the Terrible October Strike and Alexander Nevsky Eisenstein theorized montage presented Soviet realism to the world and mastered the concept of film epic Comprehensive authoritative and illustrated throughout this classic work deserves to be on the shelf of every serious student of cinema Movement, Action, Image, Montage Luka Arsenjuk, 2018-02-20 A major new study of Sergei Eisenstein delivers fresh in depth analyses of the iconic filmmaker's body of work What can we still learn from Sergei Eisenstein Long valorized as the essential filmmaker of the Russian Revolution and celebrated for his indispensable contributions to cinematic technique Eisenstein's relevance to contemporary culture is far from exhausted In Movement Action Image Montage Luka Arsenjuk considers the auteur as a filmmaker and a theorist drawing on philosophers such as Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel and Gilles Deleuze as well as Eisenstein's own untranslated texts to reframe the way we think about the great director and his legacy Focusing on Eisenstein's unique treatment of the foundational concepts of cinema movement action image and montage Arsenjuk invests each aspect of the auteur's art with new significance for the twenty first century Eisenstein's work and thought he argues belong as much to the future as the past and both can offer novel contributions to long standing cinematic questions and debates Movement Action Image Montage brings new elements of Eisenstein's output into academic consideration by means ranging from sustained and comprehensive theorization of Eisenstein's practice as a graphic artist to purposeful engagement with his recently published unfinished book Method still unavailable in English translation This tour de force offers new and significant insights on Eisenstein's oeuvre the films the art and the theory and is a landmark work on an essential filmmaker

Eisenstein, Cinema, and History James Goodwin, 1993 Among early directors Sergei Eisenstein stands alone as the maker of a fully historical cinema James Goodwin treats issues of revolutionary history and historical representation as central to an understanding of Eisenstein's work which explores two movements within Soviet history and consciousness the Bolshevik Revolution and the Stalinist state Goodwin articulates intersections between Eisenstein's ideas and aspects of the thought of Walter Benjamin Georg Lukács Ernst Bloch and Bertolt Brecht He also shows how the formal properties and filmic techniques of each work reveal perspectives on history Individual chapters focus on Strike Battleship Potemkin October Old and New projects of the 1930s Alexander Nevsky and Ivan the Terrible The Film Sense Sergei Eisenstein, 1947 An exploration of the film as a more expressive and profound medium Includes an analysis of a sound film sequence from Alexander Nevsky The most instructive discussion of the film art yet put between the covers of a book New York Times Book Review Edited and translated by Jay Leyda Index photographs and diagrams Savage Junctures Anne Nesbet,2003-07-25 Eisenstein delighted in unlikely juxtapositions being apt to cite from Stalin and Disney in one breath The heterogeneity underlying his work is breathtaking and his lack of decorum and refusal to be categorised tend to make critics uneasy but not Anne Nesbet Based on extensive research in the Eisenstein archives her book is an original beautifully written exploration of Eisenstein s omnivorous consumption of high and low culture and his wide ranging experiments in thinking in pictures Savage Junctures provides fresh insights into Eisenstein s films and writings It examines the multiple contexts within which his films evolved and Eisenstein s appropriation of all of world culture as his source Like Eisenstein himself Anne Nesbet is particularly interested in the possibilities of visual image making and each chapter addresses the problem of his image based thinking from a different perspective Each chapter also offers a fundamentally new interpretation of the films and writings that make up his oeuvre This is a major new contribution to studies in Soviet cinema and culture and to the field of film studies

Eisenstein at 100 Albert J. LaValley,Barry P. Scherr,2001 Like many other figures once closely associated with the Soviet state the great Russian filmmaker Sergei Eisenstein has become the subject of renewed interest A decade after the fall of the Soviet Union and with fresh material on his life and art now available a more complex picture of Eisenstein is emerging This collection featuring the work of major film theorists and Russian scholars offers the first post Soviet reconsideration of Eisenstein s contribution to world cinema The contributors address themes previously avoided by Soviet critics such as sexuality religion gender and politics in The Battleship Potemkin October Alexander Nevsky and Ivan the Terrible These films and others are also reassessed in light of a more thorough knowledge of Eisenstein s life and of the complicated historical cultural and political contexts in which he worked Of particular concern here is Eisenstein s struggle with Soviet censorship which resulted in a tenuous balance between the pressures of the state and his goals as an artist Essays explore the manner in which Eisenstein s later theoretical writings reveal continuity with the more well known earlier work issues of historical revisionism and the relationship between autobiography and the films Eisenstein s undeniable influence on his contemporaries and subsequent generations as well as his reception by the film community and the public are illuminated Rather than fostering the popular image of Eisenstein as the inventor of film montage the director of Potemkin and the enthusiastic early supporter of the Bolsheviks Eisenstein at 100 presents a much richer and more profound picture of Eisenstein the man the director and the film theorist The Cinema of Powell and Pressburger Nathalie Morris,Claire Smith,2023-10-05 Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger were true visionaries of British cinema creating glorious Technicolor masterpieces including A Matter of Life and Death 1946 Black Narcissus 1947 and The Red Shoes 1948 Delving into their magical and obsessive worlds this lavishly illustrated publication presents fresh perspectives on the filmmaking duo shining the spotlight not only on them but also on their circle of talented collaborators Thelma Schoonmaker Caitlin McDonald Alexandra Harris Mahesh Rao Sarah Street Ian Christie and Marina Warner write about the key figures who shared Powell and Pressburger's creative journey and Tilda Swinton Tim Walker Sarah Greenwood Michelle Williams Gamaker Sandy Powell Joanna Hogg and Stephen Jones reflect on the ways in which Powell and Pressburger's stories and images have haunted and inspired them in their own work The Cinema of Powell and Pressburger draws on the BFI's stunning design and archive collections as well as key objects held in other public and private collections

The Cinema of Jia Zhangke Cecília Mello, 2019-07-25 Shortlisted for the BAFTSS 2020 Award for Best Monograph Despite his films being subjected to censorship and denigration in his native China Jia Zhangke has become the country's leading independent film director internationally Seen as one of world cinema's foremost auteurs he has played a crucial role in documenting and reflecting upon China's era of intense transformations since the 1990s Cecília Mello provides in depth analysis of Jia's unique body of work from his early films Xiao Wu and Platform to experimental quasi documentary 24 City and the audacious Mountains May Depart Mello suggests that Jia's particular expression of the realist mode is shaped by the aesthetics of other Chinese artistic traditions allowing Jia to unearth memories both personal and collective still lingering within the ever changing landscapes of contemporary China Mello's groundbreaking study opens a door into Chinese cinema and culture addressing the nature of the so called impure cinematographic art and the complex representation of China through the ages Foreword by Walter Salles

The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded Wanda Strauven, 2006 Twenty years ago noted film scholars Tom Gunning and Andr Gaudreault introduced the phrase cinema of attractions to describe the essential qualities of films made in the medium's earliest days those produced between 1895 and 1906 Now The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded critically examines the term and its subsequent wide ranging use in film studies The collection opens with a history of the term tracing the collaboration between Gaudreault and Gunning the genesis of the term in their attempts to explain the spectacular effects of motion that lay at the heart of early cinema and the pair's debts to Sergei Eisenstein and others This reconstruction is followed by a look at applications of the term to more recent film productions from the works of the Wachowski brothers to virtual reality and video games With essays by an impressive collection of international film scholars and featuring contributions by Gunning and Gaudreault as well The Cinema of Attractions Reloaded will be necessary reading for all scholars of early film and its continuing influence
