OECD Urban Studies Cities in the World A New Perspective on Urbanisation OECD, European Commission, 2020-06-16 Cities are not only home to around half of the global population but also major centers of economic activity and innovation Yet so far there has been no consensus of what a city really is Substantial differences in the way cities metropolitan urban and rural areas are defined across countries hinder robust international comparisons and an accurate monitoring of SDGs The report Cities in the World A New Perspective on Urbanisation addresses this void and provides new insights on urbanisation by applying for the first time two new definitions of human settlements to the entire globe the Degree of Urbanisation and the Functional Urban Area

The City in Time and Space Aidan Southall, 1998 This ambitious book treats urbanisation and urbanism all over the world and from the earliest times to the present Aidan Southall a pioneer in the study of African cities discusses the urban centres of ancient Sumeria Greece and Rome as well as medieval European cities Chinese Japanese Islamic and Indic cities colonial cities and the great metropolises of the twentieth century Drawing on this historical and comparative perspective he offers a fresh analysis of world urbanisation in the contemporary period of globalisation The study emphasises the enduring paradox of the city which juxtaposes splendid cultural productions with the poverty and deprivation of the majority

The City Alan S. Berger, 1978 Cities of the Global South Reader Faranak Miraftab, Neema Kudva, 2014-10-10 The Cities of the Global South Reader adopts a fresh and critical approach to the field of urbanization in the developing world The Reader incorporates both early and emerging debates about the diverse trajectories of urbanization processes in the context of the restructured global alignments in the last three decades Emphasizing the historical legacies of colonialism the Reader recognizes the entanglement of conditions and concepts often understood in binary relations first third worlds wealth poverty development underdevelopment and inclusion exclusion By asking whose city whose development the Reader rigorously highlights the fractures along lines of class race gender and other socially and spatially constructed hierarchies in global South cities The Reader's thematic structure where editorial introductions accompany selected texts examines the issues and concerns that urban dwellers planners and policy makers face in the contemporary world These include the urban economy housing basic services infrastructure the role of non state civil society

based actors planned interventions and contestations the role of diaspora capital the looming problem of adapting to climate change and the increasing spectre of violence in a post 9 11 transnational world The Cities of the Global South Reader pulls together a diverse set of readings from scholars across the world some of which have been written specially for the volume to provide an essential resource for a broad interdisciplinary readership at undergraduate and postgraduate levels in urban geography urban sociology and urban planning as well as disciplines related to international and development studies Editorial commentaries that introduce the central issues for each theme summarize the state of the field and outline an associated bibliography They will be of particular value for lecturers students and researchers making the Cities of the Global South Reader a key text for those interested in understanding contemporary urbanization processes The New Urban Sociology Michael T. Ryan, Ray Hutchison, Mark Gottdiener, 2018-05-04 Widely recognized as a groundbreaking text The New Urban Sociology is a broad and expert introduction to urban sociology that is both relevant and accessible to the student A thought leader in the field the book is organized around an integrated paradigm the sociospatial perspective which considers the role played by social factors such as race class gender lifestyle economics culture and politics on the development of metropolitan areas Emphasizing the importance of space to social life and real estate to urban development the book integrates social ecological and political economy perspectives and research through a fresh theoretical approach With its unique perspective concise history of urban life clear summary of urban social theory and attention to the impact of culture on urban development this book gives students a cohesive conceptual framework for understanding cities and urban life In this thoroughly revised 5th edition authors Mark Gottdiener Ray Hutchison and Michael T Ryan offer expanded discussions of created cultures gentrification and urban tourism and have incorporated the most recent work in the field throughout the text The New Urban Sociology is a necessity for all courses on the subject
