Carl F. Petry, 2008-07-10 Egypt Islamic Law in Action Kristen Stilt, 2012-01-12 A dynamic account of the practice of Islamic law this book focuses on the actions of a particular legal official the muhtasib whose vast jurisdiction included all public behavior In the cities of Cairo and neighboring Fustat during the Mamluk period 1250 1517 the men who held the position of muhtasib acted as regulators of markets and public spaces generally They traversed their jurisdictions carrying out the duty to command right and forbid wrong and were as much a part of the legal landscape as the better known figures of judge and mufti Taking directions from the rulers the sultan foremost among them they were also guided by legal doctrine as formulated by the jurists combining these two sources of law in one face of authority The daily workings of the law are illuminated by the reports of the muhtasib in the vivid Mamluk era chronicles which often also captured the responses of the individuals who encountered the official The book is organized around actions taken by the muhtasib in the areas of Muslim devotional and pious practices crimes and offenses the management of Christians and Jews market regulation and consumer protection the specific markets for essential bread currency and taxes and public order The case studies presented show that while legal doctrine was clearly relevant to the muhtasib s actions the policy demands of the sultan were also quite significant and rules from both sources of authority intersected with social political economic and personal factors to create full and vibrant scenarios that reveal the practice of Islamic law History and Society During the Mamluk Period
