The Colors Of Callas Reflections Of An Icon:

The Colors of Callas Taylor Pero, Patrick C. Byrne, 2002-08 Taylor Pero best selling Hollywood biographer and researcher Patrick Byrne have created a compelling picture of opera's prima donna assoluta Maria Callas. In it they explore the vibrantly painted chapters of her life the colors of Callas. Phenomenology of the Icon Stephanie Rumpza, 2023-08-31 Interweaving art history patristics theology and aesthetics this original phenomenological study develops a fresh new approach to the icon.

Art History as a Reflection of Inner Spiritual Impulses Rudolf Steiner, 2016-06-01 13 slide presentations Dornach Oct 8 1916 Oct 29 1917 CW 292 I am going to show you a series of reproductions of slides from a period in art history to which the human mind will probably always return to contemplate and consider for if we consider history as a reflection of inner spiritual impulses it is precisely in this evolutionary moment that we see certain human circumstances ones that are among the deepest and most decisive for the outer course of human history expressed through a relationship to art. Rudolf Steiner understood that the history of art is a field in which the evolution of consciousness is symptomatically and transparently revealed. This informal sequence of thirteen lectures was given during the darkest hours of World War I. It was a moment when the negative consequences of what he called the age of the consciousness soul which began around 1417 were made most terribly apparent. In these lectures he sought to provide an antidote to pessimism. After describing the movement of consciousness from Greece into Rome coupled with influences from the Orthodox East he showed how these influences transformed as the Middle Ages became the Renaissance. The process that begins with Cimabue and Giotto develops deepens and becomes more conscious in the great Renaissance masters Leonardo Michelangelo and Raphael. Then this movement continues with the Northern masters Dürer and Holbein as well as the German tradition. One entire lecture is devoted to Rembrandt followed by one on Dutch and Flemish paintings. Themes are woven together to show how past epochs of consciousness and art live again in our consciousness soul period. Replete with interesting information and more than 600 color and black and white images these lectures are rich and dense with ideas enabling us to understand both the art of the Renaissance and the transformation of consciousness it announced. These lectures demonstrate to paraphrase Shelley that artists truly are the unacknowledged legislators of the age. Art History as a Reflection of Inner Spiritual Impulses is a translation from German of Kunstgeschichte als Abbild innerer geistiger Impulse GA 292 Rudolf Steiner Verlag 2000.
