

4 STAGES OF CONSCIOUSNESS

STAGE 1

TO ME:
Victim
Consciousness

1. In general, no transformative spiritual practice.
2. Victims believe their life is controlled by external sources rather than by self-choice or self-responsibility.
3. "Why does this always happen to me?"
4. The opportunity to give up blame and shame.

STAGE 2

BY ME:
Manifester
Consciousness

1. Spiritual Practice: affirmation and visualization
2. Manifesters make effective use of the law of manifestation and thus feel a sense of control over their life.
3. "I can use the law of manifestation to attract everything I want in my life."
4. The opportunity to give up control and a false sense of power.

STAGE 3

THROUGH ME:
Channeler
Consciousness

1. Spiritual Practice: meditation, visioning, affirmative prayer
2. Channelers are aware of being a vehicle of the Spirit and live from this sense of ultimate surrender.
3. "God expresses in, through, and as me."
(small sense of separation)
4. The opportunity to give up ego and a sense of separation.

STAGE 4

AS ME:
Being Consciousness

1. Meditation or any other spiritual practices by choice.
2. These self-realized beings sense their absolute Oneness with Source and have no sense of an egoic self.
3. "I am one with God."
(no sense of separation)
4. The opportunity to experience limitless awareness.

The Consciousness Of Deserving

The Consciousness Of Deserving:

Consciousness of Deserving Rusty Berkus, 1992-04-01 The Christian Faith Friedrich Schleiermacher, 1928 In the opinion of competent thinkers the Christian Faith of Schleiermacher is with the exception of Calvin's Institutes the most important work covering the whole field of doctrine to which Protestant theology can point To say this is not necessarily to adopt either his fundamental principles or the detailed conclusions to which these principles have guided him On all such matters a nearly unbroken controversy has long prevailed Indeed at the moment a formidable attack is being delivered upon his main positions by a new and active school of thought in Germany But whether for acceptance or rejection it is necessary for serious students to know what Schleiermacher has to say Editors preface page v Creation and Humanity Ian A. McFarland, 2009-01-01 This major sourcebook provides significant primary readings from the history of Christian theology on the topics of creation and humanity Beginning with an extended introduction McFarland fleshes out the topics of creation and humanity in sections such as God as Creator The Human Creature Evil and Sin and Providence and provides a brief introduction to each selection that demonstrates its importance and establishes its historical context This collection will be of special value in classrooms allowing students to experience firsthand some major works that shaped efforts to forge a sound Christian understanding of creation and humanity The Oxford Handbook of Theology and Modern European Thought Nicholas Adams, George Pattison, Graham Ward, 2013-02-28 Modern European thought describes a wide range of philosophies cultural programmes and political arguments developed in Europe in the period following the French Revolution Throughout this period many of the wide range of modernisms and anti modernisms had a distinctly religious and even theological character not least when religion was subjected to the harshest criticism Yet for all the breadth and complexity of modern European thought and in particular its relations to theology a distinct body of themes and approaches recurred in each generation Moreover many of the issues that took intellectual shape in Europe are now global rather than narrowly European and for good or ill they form part of Europe's bequest to the world from colonialism and the economic theories behind globalisation through to democracy to terrorism This volume attempts to identify and comment on some of the most important of these The thirty chapters are grouped into six thematic parts moving from questions of identity and the self through discussions of the human condition the age of revolution the world both natural and technological and knowledge methodologies concluding with a section looking explicitly at how major theological themes have developed in modern European thought The chapters engage with major thinkers including Kant Hegel Kierkegaard Heidegger Schleiermacher Nietzsche Dostoevsky Barth Rahner Tillich Bonhoeffer Sartre de Beauvoir Wittgenstein and Derrida amongst many others Taken together these new essays provide a rich and reflective overview of the interchange between theology philosophy and critical thought in Europe over the past two hundred years Justification: A Guide for the Perplexed Alan J. Spence, 2012-01-26 This title provides an upper level introduction to the doctrine of justification which triggered the Reformation and is still high up on the agenda in Ecumenical dialogue The core of the book is an historical survey of the doctrine of justification as it has developed within the Western church a somewhat simplified version of McGrath's Justitia Dei but with a more outspoken assessment of the various moves that are taken at various stages in the discussion Attention will be paid to the context or prevailing world view in which such a doctrine is deemed significant Although the focus is on a number of principal theologians there are some reference to their peers or followers Only at the end the Pauline texts are examined The conclusion considers what part a doctrine of justification can have within a modern worldview in which the concept of divine judgement has generally been marginalised

Continuum's Guides for the Perplexed are clear concise and accessible introductions to thinkers writers and subjects that students and readers can find especially challenging or indeed downright bewildering Concentrating specifically on what it is that makes the subject difficult to grasp these books explain and explore key themes and ideas guiding the reader towards a thorough understanding of demanding material

From Calvin to Barth Phillip D. R. Griffiths, 2014-07-21 The Enlightenment caused a paradigm shift in the worldview of most people living in the Western world Those Christian doctrines associated with the Protestant Reformation were believed to be no longer tenable The great German theologian Karl Barth appeared to provide a remedy for this with a theology that harkened back to Protestant Reformation From Calvin to Barth examines just how successful Barth was in returning to the old ways to ascertain whether he did espouse the thinking of men like John Calvin or whether he simply provided a theological system that was just another face of post Enlightenment liberal thinking
