

TRANSLATOR'S NOTE.

THE title of the first volume of the German edition of this work is Verfassung und Geschichte der Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika. Believing that the literal translation of that title would not convey to the American reader an correct an idea of the contents of the distinguished author's book as: "The Constitutional and Political History of the United States," the translators of the first volume agreed to call the work in English by the latter name. This was done without any previous consultation with the author himself. Professor v. Meier, however, has given this second volume the title — which is to be preserved in those that are yet to come — Verfassungsgeschichte der Vereinigten Staaten seit der Administration Jackson — or "The Constitutional History of the United States from the Administration of Jackson." It is due to Professor v. Meier and the public to say that the author himself is of opinion that the title chosen by the translators for the first volume takes a claim which that volume does not entirely support. This second volume fulfills the promise of the translators' title, and hence the reader will find the scope of this second volume somewhat different from that of the first.

Those acquainted with the German edition will notice that the Einführung (Introduction) to the second volume is
