Excerpt from The Heart of Princess Osra Kill him for me then kill him for me Take her and be happy Stephen stood on the threshold with his staff in his hand The physician receives Princess Osra Madame if you will you can do me a great service With either hand he drew a silver mounted pistol She asked the officer why a throng of people hastened to the city My lord where is the Princess He drove his sword into his body and the Count gave back before it He walked with his head down and his eyes on the ground He took it and drained it On either side of it sat the priest of the village and the Miller of Hofbau Forgive me forgive me A young man sprang up and with a low bow drew aside to let her pass You are the beauty of the world he answered smiling About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to
