Harris Harbison, 1956 The Christian Scholar in the Age of the Reformation Elmore Harris Harbison, 1956 The Christian Scholar in the Age of the Reformation E. Harris Harbison, 2003-01-01 The Age of Reformation E. Harris Harbison, 2013-04-12 In The Age of Reformation first published in 1955 E Harris Harbison shows why sixteenth century Europe was ripe for a catharsis New political and social factors were at work the growth of the middle classes the monetary inflation resulting from an influx of gold from the New World the invention of printing the trend toward centralization of political power Against these developments Harbison places the church nearly bankrupt because of the expense of defending the papal states supporting an elaborate administrative organization and luxurious court and financing the crusades The Reformation as he shows was the result of a long slow shifting of social conditions and human values to which the church was not responding readily enough The sheer inertia of an enormous and complex organization the drag of powerful vested interests the helplessness of individuals with intelligent schemes of reform this is what strikes the historian in studying the church of the later Middle Ages Martin Luther a devout and forceful monk sought only to cleanse the church of its abuses and return to the spiritual guidance of the Scriptures But as it turned out western Christendom split into two camps a division as stirring as fearful as portentous to the sixteenth century world as any in Europe's history Offering an engaging and accessible introductory history of the Reformation Harbison focuses on the age's key individuals institutions and ideas while at the same time addressing the slower less obvious tides of social and political change A classic and long out of print synthesis of earlier generations of historical scholarship on the Reformation told with clarity and drama this book concisely traces the outlines interlocked and interwoven as they were of the various phases that comprised the Age of Reformation Christian Scholar In The Age Of The Reformation Elmore Harris Harbison, 1956 The Christian Scholar, 1964 The ^ASoul of the American University Revisited George M. Marsden, 2021-04-28 The Soul of the American University is a classic and much discussed account of the changing roles of Christianity in shaping American higher education From the 1630s through the 1950s when Protestantism provided an informal religious establishment colleges were expected to offer some sort of religious and moral guidance Following reactions in the 1960s against the WASP establishment and concerns for diversity the specifically Protestant heritage quickly disappeared and various secular viewpoints predominated This revised and updated edition brings the story into the twenty first century The Collected Writings of James Leo Garrett Jr., 1950-2015: Volume Four James Leo Garrett Jr., 2020-05-06 James Leo Garrett Jr has been called the last of the gentlemen theologians and the dean of Southern Baptist theologians In The Collected Writings of James Leo Garrett Jr 1950 2015 the reader will find a truly dazzling collection of works that clearly evince the meticulous scholarship the even handed treatment the biblical fidelity the
