Nilsen, Authorship and Aesthetics in the Cinematography of Gregg Toland Philip Cowan, 2022-10-03 In this three part book length study of the work of Gregg Toland Philip Cowan explores approaches to co authorship in collaborative filmmaking to propose new ways of identifying attributing and evaluating the creative work of cinematographers In the first part of the study Cowan challenges the dominant director centered auteur approach to film studies critiquing the historical development of authorship theory and providing a contemporary analysis of the cinematographer s authorial role in creating images that communicate meaning through content and construction By synthesizing and updating the work of previous film theorists to define the complexities of composition movement and lighting in the second part of the study Cowan develops a new comprehensive taxonomy of functional and aesthetic elements of the moving image Finally by using the co author approach and the analytical tools developed in part two of the book Cowan provides an in depth re examination of Toland s work highlighting the historical neglect of the cinematographer s artistic contribution to filmmaking and developing a fresh approach to the analysis of contemporary cinematography in film The Cinema as a Graphic Art Vladimir S. Nil'sen, 197? The cinema as a graphic art Vladimir Nilsen, Sergej Mihajlovič Èjzenštejn, 1985* The Cinema as a Graphic Art. On a Theory of Representation in the Cinema ... 20th century working in the postwar period such as Yasujiro Ozu in Japan Jacques Tati in France and Frank Tashlin in the United States The Clear Line in Comics and Cinema is therefore a key theoretical work for both bande dessinée enthusiasts and comics scholars as well as a fundamental contribution to present day film studies and transmedial narratology The Cinema of Poetry P. Adams Sitney, 2015 Informed by the criticism of iconic filmmaker Pier Paolo Pasolini The Cinema of Poetry offers spirited explorations of poetry's influence on classic films by Dimitri Kirsanoff Ingmar Bergman and Andrei Tarkovsky It also highlights how avant garde films made by Joseph Cornell Lawrence Jordan Jerome Hill Gregory Markopoulos and others found rich unexpected sources of inspiration in a diverse group of poets that includes Stéphane Mallarmé Emily Dickinson H D Ezra Pound Robert Duncan John Ashbery and Aeschylus Written with verve and panache it represents the culmination of P Adams Sitney's career long fascination with the intersection of poetry film and the avant garde The Cinema's Third Machine Sabine Hake, 1993-01-01 The improvements in the technology artistry and distribution of motion pictures coincided with the traumas of modern Germany It is hardly to be wondered that filmmakers frequently turned their cameras on Germany's social and political problems that propagandists regularly sought to manipulate them that entrepreneurs tried to exploit them and that German thinkers brooded upon the relationship between German society politics and the films that represented them all From these tangled motives a rich discourse on film emerged that paralleled or anticipated discourses in the other film centers of the world The Cinema's Third Machine reproduces the diversity of perspectives and the intensity of controversies of early German film within the broad context of German social and political history from the aesthetic rapture of the first years to the institutionalization of film by the national socialist state Many texts have been rediscovered and are now presented to modern scholars for the first time Hake treats all aspects of the medium production promotion education journalism aesthetics and political activism following throughout the various forms criticism assumed The Technique of Film and Video Editing Ken Dancyger, 2013-04-26 The Technique of Film Video Editing provides a detailed precise look at the artistic and aesthetic principles and practices of editing for both picture and sound Analyses of photographs from dozens of classic and contemporary films and videos provide a sound basis for the professional filmmaker and student editor This book puts into context the storytelling choices an editor will have to make against a background of theory history and practice This new edition has been updated to include the latest advances in digital video and nonlinear editing and explores the new trend of documentary as mainstream entertainment using films such as Fahrenheit 9/11 and The Fog of War as examples Between Point Zero and the Iron Curtain, 2024-10-28 This volume edited by Val Forgács with contributions from art historians from across Europe and the Americas analyzes the artistic initiatives of the short time span between the end of World War II and the onset of the Cold War In this moment a new internationalism was anticipated by retrieving pre war modernism as well as creating the new era's new artistic lingua franca The chapters include in depth case studies that analyze the complex often interconnected projects throughout the world South America and Eastern and Western Europe that were soon ended by the Cold War
