The Cinema Of David Lean:

Beyond the Epic Gene Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908-1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry The Cinema of David Lean Gerald Pratley, 1974-01-01

The Epic Films of David Lean Constantine Santas, 2011-09-22 Widely regarded as one of cinema's most accomplished directors David Lean helmed such classics as Brief Encounter Great Expectations and Oliver Twist He twice received the Academy Award for best director and two of his films The Bridge on the River Kwai and Lawrence of Arabia won the Oscar for best picture Both are featured on the American Film Institute's Top 100 with Lawrence of Arabia at number seven Despite the awards and accolades for these motion pictures many critics often look more favorably upon the smaller films that Lean produced earlier in his career and in recent years his reputation as a director has diminished In this study Constantine Santas seeks to restore these now undervalued epics to the elevated esteem they once held Without dismissing the earlier works or regarding them as irrelevant to Lean's evolution as an artist this book shows that the epics if analyzed from certain vantage points are as worthy as any of Lean's previous films In addition to Lean's Academy Award winning blockbusters Santas also provides close analytical looks at Doctor Zhivago Ryan's Daughter and the director's final film A Passage to India Santas argues that the epics show a progression and refinement of Lean's work and that they are thematically broader and feature more complex characterization than his earlier films In his analyses Santas provides background material on the production of each epic insights into structure characters techniques and themes and a look into the relationship between the films and their literary sources Written in a clear and engaging manner The Epic Films of David Lean will appeal not only to cinema students and scholars but also to the general fan of David Lean and his work David Lean Lydia

Goehr,2025-07-10 David Lean s extraordinary films work philosophically through the modern reproductive and transportive technologies of sight and sound through trains planes ships and automobiles from one perspective and through the modern technology of the radio and gramophone from another Lean s musical motifs are known worldwide Lara s theme in Zhivago the Colonel Bogey March in Kwai Estella s motif in Great Expectations Rosy s motif in Ryan s Daughter Lawrence s motif for his adventure in Arabia and of course Rachmaninoff s pounding chords in Brief Encounter When however Lean described his cutting of pictures as akin to how music flows through pictures what sort of music or musicality had he in mind a classical or popular music or a way of using musical form to mix up the meaning and material of his films Lydia Goehr s new book tracks the soundscape in Lean s films not only through the musical scores composed for the films but also and more through the technology of radio and gramophone that at the start of Lean s career were becoming indispensable household items for the home The book begins and ends with a motif running from the early more domestic films locally situated in the English home to the later more extensive epics of colony commonwealth and empire The fidelity infidelity relationship defined by marriage extends to the loyalty betrayal relationship regarding countries of war and peace after which this relationship is extended to the witty British manner of making film as a perfected and not so perfected symphonic work of a great cutter s art Here as few other books on Lean have emphasized the influence of Noel Coward on Lean cannot be overestimated David Lean David Lean,2009 Along with Michael Powell and Alfred Hitchcock David Lean 1908 1991 is one of the most significant British filmmakers to emerge from the first half of the twentieth century His use of panoramic landscapes precision editing grandiose compositions and epic themes as epitomized in his classics Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago have influenced Steven Spielberg George Lucas Martin Scorsese and numerous other directors Lean s films encompass a wide range of styles and genres quiet personal dramas Brief Encounter Summertime stylized adaptations of classic novels and plays Blithe Spirit Oliver Twist Great Expectations A Passage to India and wartime dramas In Which We Serve The Bridge on the River Kwai David Lean Interviews offers the reader the most thorough and complete compendium of illuminating interviews with the director several of which are exclusive to this edition Lean speaks openly about his process and his passion for film revealing a complicated and talented artist who at times shows great bravado while at other times exposes deep insecurities The volume chronicles the career of one of cinema s most popular and groundbreaking filmmakers

David Lean Kevin Brownlow,1996-08-15 David Lean was one of a handful of movie makers of international renown and arguably the most famous and successful of all British film directors Emerging from a childhood of nearly Dickensian darkness Lean found success as the director of the such classic films as The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago Learn about the making of movies as realized by a master but also of the highly personal costs of genius in color David Lean Louis P. Castelli, Caryn Lynn Cleeland, 1980 David Lean and His Films Alain Silver, James Ursini, 1992 Uncovers themes and concerns that have been held throughout Lean's career David Lean Stephen M. Silverman, 2019-01-15 Here is the story of Sir David Lean one of the greatest moviemakers of all time director of such epics as Lawrence of Arabia Doctor Zhivago The Bridge on the River Kwai and A Passage to India Stephen M Silverman spent the better part of a year meeting with Lean to secure firsthand information for this book An intensely private man Lean opened up to Silverman and shared with him the story of his life from his Quaker upbringing through his decade as Britain's star film editor to his work as a director earning him through his intelligent literate films a reputation for perfection Lean's movies which collected an unprecedented twenty seven Academy Awards are noted for their stunning pictorial content as well as their strong narrative flow and many of Lean's colleagues have shared their personal recollections with the author who has added a new afterword to the book The memories and anecdotes from such film notables as Alec Guinness Katharine Hepburn Julie Christie Maurice Jarre John Mills Omar Sharif Judy Davis and Sarah Miles serve to further enliven this already vivid biographical and critical study Katharine Hepburn starred in Summertime Lean's first film to be shot entirely on location Her Introduction discusses Sir David as both an incomparable director and a great friend Rolling Stone Stephen M Silverman has guided the famously reclusive Lean into lively witty and informative recollections of his life and work on such hits as The Bridge on the River Kwai Doctor Zhivago Brief Encounter and A Passage to India as well as Lawrence of Arabia Here's that rare book on movies that can really be called indispensable Los Angeles Times Perhaps most surprising to his friends Lean allowed himself to be interviewed at length by critic Stephen Silverman David Lean is interesting not least for the candor with which Lean admitted that the reviews of Ryan's Daughter devastated him and almost paralyzed him creatively The Boston Globe Bright chatty cant free Without lapsing into critspeak Silverman adroitly lays out the evidence for what's shaping up as an emergent reassessment of Lean's output and provides flavorful eyewitness testimony pro and con Chicago Tribune It's fitting that the most exquisitely crafted book on film should deal with one of the motion pictures supreme craftsmen David Lean Lean himself contributes many insights and anecdotes and there are fascinating behind the camera tales of both his meticulous technique and his messy battles with producers and stars Financial Times This portrait of the film director as old lion is well researched and highly readable We goggle at the account of Lean's Quaker upbringing and his parents horror of the cinema They wanted him to become an accountant We follow Lean's early creative romances with Noël Coward four films and Charles Dickens two And we listen to Lean and Katharine Hepburn quarreling via Silverman over who was responsible for her ill fated jump into the Venice canal in Summertime Variety As lavish as Lean's best films Stephen M Silverman's David Lean is an important addition to the collective library of film books David Lean Howard Maxford, 2014-10-30 Oscar winning director David Lean was responsible for some of the most enduring images in British cinema including the romantic clinches between Trevor Howard and Celia Johnson in Brief Encounter and Pip's memorable dash across the marshes in Great Expectations. Lean became renowned for his visual epics painting the cinematic screen in such films as The Bridge on the River Kwai, Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago. Yet despite the large canvas of these masterpieces Lean never lost sight of the human story within them. In his study of Lean's career Howard Maxford takes behind the scenes look at each of the director's films chronicling their making and their subsequent reception by both audiences and critics. Lean's early work as a film editor which led to his commission by Noel Coward to co-direct the landmark war drama In Which We Serve is examined along with Lean's self-imposed 14 year exile after a savage reception from critics to his penultimate film. His exile ended triumphantly with the release of A Passage to India. Lean the man away from the camera is also revealed including his six marriages and his strict Quaker upbringing. An informative critical guide this David Lean companion offers a detailed examination of the work of one of cinema's true greats.
