The Secret History of Gender Steve J.

Stern, 1997-02-01 In this study of gender relations in late colonial Mexico ca. 1760-1821 Steve Stern analyzes the historical connections between gender power and politics in the lives of peasants Indians and other marginalized peoples Through vignettes of everyday

Claire Denis Judith Mayne, 2005-03-30 Widely regarded as one of the most innovative and passionate filmmakers working in France today Claire Denis has continued to make beautiful and challenging films since the 1988 release of her first feature Chocolat Judith Mayne's comprehensive study traces Denis's career and discusses her major feature films in rich detail Born in Paris but raised in West Africa Denis explores in her films the legacies of French colonialism and the complex relationships between sexuality gender and race From the adult woman who observes her past as a child in Cameroon to the Lithuanian immigrant who arrives in Paris and watches a serial killer to the disgraced French Foreign Legionnaire attempting to make sense of his past the subjects of Denis's films continually revisit themes of watching bearing witness and making contact as well as displacement masculinity and the migratory subject

Gender Violence in Ecofeminist Perspective Gwen Hunnicutt, 2019-09-23 This book aims to begin an eco-centered eco-feminist informed discussion about the ways in which our relationship to nature is bound up with gender patriarchy and violence Ecofeminist scholars study the interconnections between gendered relationships of domination among humans between humans and between humans nonhumans and the earth It is in this ideological and structural tangle between humans and the environment that a deeper understanding of gender violence is possible Ecofeminism offers analytical possibilities for understanding a logic of domination which sustain a whole host of problems including the interrelated oppressions of gender violence and exploitation of the more than human life world In this book Gwen Hunnicutt brings into dialog ecofeminism and gender violence Ideological components such as speciesism and the belief that the earth and its nonhuman inhabitants are ours to exploit inform a host of other social practices including interpersonal violence A portion of this book is devoted to exploring the ways in which patriarchy is foregrounded by another hierarchy human domination over nature Thus gender violence stems from a logic of domination that is built on the domination of nature and the domination of the Other as nature As this blueprint of oppression repeats itself where there are vectors of difference the chapters ultimately connect these oppressions by showing the inextricable bind of violence against humans and the more than human life world This book will serve as a resource for scholars activists and students in sociology gender violence and interdisciplinary violence studies critical animal studies environmental studies and feminist and ecofeminist studies
