Refugees from National Socialism in Australia Philipp Strobl,2025-04-07 This book follows ideas and knowledge that migrated in the cultural baggage of Austrian refugees who fled to Australia in 1938 and 1939 because of National Socialism By telling and comparing the stories of twenty six different lives it highlights the processes of acquisition transportation translation and adaption of ideas knowledge and cultural capital This provides a unique and colourful insight into the impact of a group of refugees on their host society over several decades As the book shows there were many different ways in which displaced people relied upon their social and cultural capital to first escape their oppressive homeland and then build new lives Once they had arrived in Australia they used very different approaches to negotiate and promote their knowledge and to exercise agency Transnational Protest, Australia and the 1960s Jon Piccini,2016-05-09 Australia is rarely considered to have been a part of the great political changes that swept the world in the 1960s the struggles of the American civil rights movement student revolts in Europe guerrilla struggles across the Third World and demands for women s and gay liberation

This book tells the story of how Australian activists from a diversity of movements read about borrowed from physically encountered and critiqued overseas manifestations of these rebellions as well as locating the impact of radical visitors to the nation. It situates Australian protest and reform movements within a properly global and particularly Asian context where Australian protestors sought answers, utopias and allies. Dramatically broadens our understanding of Australian protest movements; this book presents them not only as manifestations of local issues and causes but as fundamentally tied to ideas, developments and personalities overseas, particularly to socialist states and struggles in near neighbours like Vietnam, Malaysia and China. Jon Piccini is Research and Teaching Fellow at The University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia. His research interests include the history of human rights and social histories of international student migration. The Communist International, Anti-Imperialism and Racial Equality in British Dominions Oleksa Drachewych, 2018-12-07. This book analyzes the stance of international communism towards nationality, anti-colonialism and racial equality as defined by the Communist International (Comintern) during the interwar period. Central to the volume is a comparative analysis of the communist parties of three British dominions: South Africa, Canada and Australia, demonstrating how each party attempted to follow Moscow's lead and how each party produced its own attempts to deal with these issues locally while considering the limits of their own agency within the movement at large. Developments in Australian Politics Judith Brett, James A. Gillespie, Murray Goot, 1994. Written for university students and the general reader. An examination of Australian politics in the last 15 years and the changes in ideology, executive and political institutions and policies in all areas including economic, ethnic, immigration, unions, social welfare, foreign affairs, media, the environment, censorship and sexual politics. The editors are lecturers in politics at La Trobe and Macquarie Universities and the 17 contributors include John Ravenhill, Uldis Ozolin and Tim Rowse. With subject and author indexes and 38 page bibliography. Dictionary of Labour Biography Keith Gildart, David Howell, 2020-01-31. The Dictionary of Labour Biography has an outstanding reputation as a reference work for the study of nineteenth and twentieth century British history. Volume XV maintains this standard of original and thorough scholarship. Each entry is written by a specialist drawing on an array of primary and secondary sources. The biographical essays engage with recent historiographical developments in the field of labour history. The scope of the volume emphasises the ethnic and national diversity of the British labour movement and neglected political traditions.

Radical Students Alan Barcan, 2002-08-04. From the 1920s to the 1960s the Australian Left struggled to make ideological sense of the Great Depression, the growth of fascism and militarism overseas, World War II, the atomic bomb, the Cold War and fear of communism. All these issues found expression on the campus of Australia's oldest university where ardent youth pursued the ideal of social justice. Sydney's controversial philosophy professor John Anderson and his Freethought Society added volatility to the mix with their rejection of orthodox politics. Later, impassioned hostility between supporters of the Communist Party, the Labor Party and the Catholic Movement led by B. A. Santamaria ruffled undergraduate life Alan Barcan was himself a participant in the radical movement This account of the period leavened with anecdotes and lively undergraduate wit recreates the texture of student life and the shifting faultlines of political loyalties The ruthless tactics ponderous zeal and underlying idealism of student politics are set against discussions of the liberal humanist tradition and the nature and purpose of universities Barcan presents a roll call of famous names in Australian political professional and cultural life Poet James McAuley with fag in mouth and a glass of cheap plonk pounds the piano for rehearsals of the student revue Similarly unfamiliar appearances are made by Gough Whitlam John Kerr H V Evatt Brian Fitzpatrick P R Stephensen Donald Horne Christopher Brennan A D Hope Germaine Greer Amy Witting Neville Wran Peter Coleman P P McGuinness and many other significant figures of the past half century Radical Students will stir the blood of those who were there and make stimulating reading for those Australians who care about education politics and liberal thought
