The Concrete Battleship:

The Concrete Battleship Francis J. Allen, 1988 Our Army, 1938 American Front (The Great War, Book One) Harry Turtledove, 2006-09-19 This is state of the art alternate history nothing less Publishers Weekly starred review When the Great War engulfed Europe in 1914 the United States and the Confederate States of America bitter enemies for five decades entered the fray on opposite sides the United States aligned with the newly strong Germany while the Confederacy joined forces with their longtime allies Britain and France But it soon became clear to both sides that this fight would be different that war itself would never be the same again For this was to be a protracted global conflict waged with new and chillingly efficient innovations the machine gun the airplane poison gas and trench warfare Across the Americas the fighting raged like wildfire on multiple and far flung fronts As President Theodore Roosevelt rallied the diverse ethnic groups of the northern states Irish and Italians Mormons and Jews Confederate President Woodrow Wilson struggled to hold together a Confederacy still beset by ignorance prejudice and class divisions And as the war thundered on southern blacks oppressed for generations found themselves fatefully drawn into a climactic confrontation The Fall of the Philippines Louis Morton, 1953 A detailed description of the three month defense of Bataan the siege of Corregidor the soldier s life in the crowded intimacy of Malinta Tunnel MacArthur s evacuation and the surrender of 78 000 American and Allied troops

Sandy Hook Randall Gabrielan, 1999 Defending America's Coasts, 1775-1950 Dale E. Floyd, 1997 The Military Engineer, 1920 Corregidor 1945 Mark Lardas, 2023-07-20 A detailed and fascinating exploration of the 1945 US combined land naval and air operation to retake Corregidor and the other Japanese held islands in Manila Bay from a determined and well entrenched enemy The islands guarding the entrance to Manila Bay Luzon had been seized by the Japanese in May 1942 In February 1945 US forces were back and closed in on Manila from the north and south against heavy Japanese resistance A joint US parachute and amphibious assault was planned to capture the largest island Corregidor using the much reinforced 503rd PRCT and elements of the 24th Infantry Division and 2nd Engineer Special Brigade Facing them were over 6 000 Japanese troops recently evacuated from Bataan where they had been cut off by advancing US forces General MacArthur desired the island once a symbol of American defiance to be liberated with a flourish This superbly illustrated work examines the ambitious US assault on Corregidor which witnessed the most dangerous and risky parachute drop in airborne history and vicious desperate fighting by the defenders as they sought to prevent American troops from taking the island It also covers the recapture of other islands defending Manila Bay El Fraile Fort Drum Caballo and Carabao

Pacific Marine Review, 1922 American Defenses of Corregidor and Manila Bay 1898-1945 Mark Berhow, Terrance McGovern, 2012-09-20 The Philippines were declared an American Territory on January 4 1899 and fortification construction soon began on the islands in the mouth of Manila Bay Among the sites built were Fort Mills Corregidor Fort Frank and the formidable concrete battleship of Fort Drum The defenses suffered constant Japanese bombardment during World War II

leading to the surrender of American forces In 1945 the forts were manned by Japanese soldiers determined to hold out to the bitter end This title details the fortifications of this key strategic location and considers both their effectiveness and historical importance
