The Heritage:

The Heritage Theatre Marlite Halbertsma, 2011-05-25 The Heritage Theatre is a book about cultural heritage and globalisation Cultural heritage is the stage on which the global community smaller communities and individuals play out their similarities and differences their identities and singularities Cultural heritage forms an implicit cultural code governing the relationship between parts and the whole individuals and communities communities and outsiders as well as the relationship between communities and the world as a whole Cultural heritage by way of its producers its products and its audience presents an image of the world and its inner coherence The subjects in this book range from places as distant from each other as Dar es Salaam Jakarta Amsterdam Le Creusot Trinidad Brazzaville Bremerhaven New York and Prague and deal with themes such as wayang Kylie Minogue airports and heritage modernist architecture in Africa and the impact of DNA research on the concept of roots The volume is based on papers presented at a conference organised by the Erasmus School of History Culture and Communication of Erasmus University Rotterdam The authors have backgrounds in cultural studies art history anthropology museum studies sociology tourist studies and history

The Heritage Arena Cristina Grasseni, 2016-10-01 In Europe a number of production and communication strategies have long tried to establish local products as resources for local development At the foot of the Alps this scenario appears in all its contradictions especially in relation to cheese production The Heritage Arena focuses on the saga of Strachitunt a cheese that has been designated an EU Protected Designation of Origin after years of negotiation and competition involving cheese makers merchants and Slow Food activists The book explores how the reinvention of cheese as a form of heritage is an ongoing and dynamic process rife with conflict and drama

The Heritage Strategy Planning Handbook Marc C. Denhez, Marc Denhez, 1997-10-10 This book summarizes the five major legislative approaches for the conservation and revitalization of buildings and districts

Integrated Management Tools in the Heritage of South-East Europe Rob Pickard, Juris Dambis, Council of Europe. Directorate of Culture and Cultural and Natural Heritage, 2008-01-01 As part of the Institutional Capacity Building Plan which is the first of the three components of the Regional Programme for Cultural and Natural Heritage in South East Europe launched in 2003 a transnational theme based debate was organised The second step in this debate stemmed from an assessment of requests from the countries regions participating in the Regional Programme Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Bulgaria Croatia Kosovo UNMIK Montenegro Romania Serbia and the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia The first step was concerned with current heritage policies and legislation Its aim was to take stock of the position regarding legislative reforms and heritage policies in the countries of South East Europe It also highlighted the need for an in depth analysis of certain key areas where difficulties still arose in implementation The second step was concerned with tools for integrated management of the cultural and natural heritage in the broad sense of the term heritage the concept of cultural environment It linked together three key topics previously identified documentation systems incorporating the heritage dimension in

M. Bower, 1916 The Heritage Howard Bryant, 2018-05-08 Following in the footsteps of Robeson Ali Robinson and others today s Black athletes re engage with social issues and the meaning of American patriotism Named a best book of 2018 by Library Journal It used to be that politics and sports were as separate from one another as church and state The ballfield was an escape from the world s worst problems top athletes were treated like heroes and cheering for the home team was as easy and innocent as hot dogs and beer No news on the sports page was a governing principle in newsrooms That was then Today sports arenas have been transformed into staging grounds for American patriotism and the hero worship of law enforcement Teams wear camouflage jerseys to honor those who serve police officers throw out first pitches soldiers surprise their families with homecomings at halftime Sports and politics are decidedly entwined But as journalist Howard Bryant reveals this has always been more complicated for black athletes who from the start were committing a political act simply by being on the field In fact among all black employees in twentieth century America perhaps no other group had more outsized influence and power than ballplayers The immense social responsibilities that came with the role is part of the black athletic heritage It is a heritage built by the influence of the superstardom and radical politics of Paul Robeson Jackie Robinson Muhammad Ali Tommie Smith and John Carlos through the 1960s undermined by apolitical corporate friendly transcendents of race O J Simpson Michael Jordan and Tiger Woods in the following decades and reclaimed today by the likes of LeBron James Colin Kaepernick and Carmelo Anthony The Heritage is the story of the rise fall and fervent return of the athlete activist Through deep research and interviews with some of sports best known stars including Kaepernick David Ortiz Charles Barkley and Chris Webber as well as members of law enforcement and the military Bryant details the collision of post 9 11 sports in America and the politically engaged post Ferguson black athlete

Cultural Heritage on the Urban Peripheries María García-Hernández, Maria Gravari-Barbas, 2025-01-27 This innovative and insightful book critically explores how to recognize and generate the social cultural political and economic values of the heritage of urban peripheries and encourage new metropolitan development scenarios that protect and build upon that cultural heritage Expert led and richly illustrated throughout the text addresses issues such as the management and development of the cultural heritage of urban peripheries community involvement the relationship of youth with cultural heritage the heritage of ethnic communities and their cultural identity tourism development supported by heritage resources and the art heritage relationship at urban peripheries It looks at the whole spectrum of heritage of the metropolitan peripheries including architectural heritage industrial areas factories and warehouses transport infrastructure canals and railways social housing and contemporary residential architecture It also comprises the rich intangible heritages of working class and or migrant communities in process of constant change and reconfiguration through protest negotiation and cultural expression This significant volume reveals the heterogeneity of the existing cultural heritage in the urban peripheries the complexity of the processes of recognition and social appropriation of these assets as well as their need for protection This is a pivotal resource for students scholars and academics of urban studies tourism studies and cultural studies as well as those with an interest in these topics more generally

The Heritage of Hiroshige Dora Amsden, John Stewart Happer, 1912 The Heritage Lectures Martin L. Lasater, 1986 The Heritage of the Ancient World Stewart Copinger Easton, 1970 The Heritage of Giotto's Geometry Samuel Y. Edgerton, 1991 This ambitious book explores the relationship between the Western scientific revolution that began with Galileo in the early seventeenth century and the Renaissance artistic revolution inaugurated by Giotto three hundred years earlier The fruit of many years of thought and research it demonstrates the crucial role that Italian Renaissance painting sculpture and architecture played in what we call modern science Samuel Y Edgerton Jr shows that rather than being symptomatic in nature the arts served as a catalyst for the transformation in perception which occurred in the West in the fourteenth century According to Edgerton the new way in which reality was represented through the use of the unique Renaissance tools of perspective and chiaroscuro set the stage for modern scientific practice The Heritage of Industrial Psychology Leonard W. Ferguson,1962 The Gentle Heritage Frances E. Crompton,1895
