Small Farmers Big Business Contract Farming And Rural Development:

Small Farmers, Big Business David Glover, Ken Kusterer, 2016-07-27 This book deals with an agricultural production and marketing system known as contract farming CF In this system a public or private agency purchases the crops of independent farmers through contracts often providing inputs technical assistance and marketing CF has a long history in developed countries and has spread to the Third World The book uses case studies from North America Latin America and Africa to assess the experience to date and provide guidelines for the use of CF in the future

Contract Farming and the Development of Smallholder Agricultural Businesses Joseph A. Kuzilwa, Niels Fold, Arne Henningsen, Marianne Nylandsted Larsen, 2017-08-24 Contract farming has received renewed attention recently as developing economies try to grapple with how to transform the agricultural sector and its associated value chains This book examines different contract arrangements for selected crops applying both qualitative and quantitative approaches in order to examine how contract farming affects smallholders and value chain dynamics in Tanzania Major themes covered in the book include contract farming policy contract farming and value chain dynamics contract farming adoption decisions contract farming and income diversification The authors also discuss alternative aspects of contract farming such as trust conspiracy empowerment and corporate social responsibility The book presents original research from case studies conducted in Tanzania on sugarcane tobacco sunflower and cotton These crops have a history of trials and errors with contract farming involving smallholders Furthermore they are targeted in national strategies as some of the main crops for establishment and upgrading of agro industrial activities in Tanzania

Contract farming and public-private partnerships in aquaculture Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-10-31 Through an array of project outcomes in different countries this paper demonstrates that contract farming is a win win solution because young workers gain access to markets while private companies have access to produce without acquiring land or supervising labour

Industrial Districts in History and the Developing World Tomoko Hashino, Keijiro Otsuka, 2016-10-11 This book sheds new light on the role of industrial districts in the industrial development of the past and present Industrial districts which refer to the geographical concentration of enterprises producing similar or closely related commodities in a small area play a significant role in the development of manufacturing industries not only historically in Europe and Japan but also at present in emerging East Asian economies such as China and Vietnam and low income countries in sub Saharan Africa The book identifies similarities in the development patterns of industrial districts in history and the present and analyzes the reasons for these similarities More specifically the book examines whether Marshallian agglomeration economies provide sufficient explanations and seeks to deepen understanding about the important factors that are missing Despite the common issues addressed by economic historians and development economists regarding the advantages of industrial districts for industrial development discussion of these issues between the two groups of researchers has been largely absent or at best weak The purpose of this book is to integrate the results of case studies by economic historians interested in France Spain and Japan and those by development economists interested in the contemporary industries still developing in China Vietnam Bangladesh Tanzania and other countries in sub Saharan Africa Human Development and Capacity Building Maria Fay Rola-Rubzen, John Burgess, 2016-02-05 Capacity building looks at developing the infrastructure institutions and people and is critical to the development and participation of humans in the economy and society Capacity building ranges from schools roads and hospitals through to health and welfare systems education communication and information sharing participation and voice governance and opportunity This book aims to outline the nature and scale of the capacity building challenges facing countries in the Asia Pacific region Human Development and Capacity Building presents case studies from selected countries with an emphasis on rural development and programs that enhance opportunity and participation in the economy It focuses on issues arising from women development in Pakistan indigenous union voice in the French Pacific job creation programs in Indonesia and the role of international aid and labour agencies in capacity building in Myanmar The rich coverage will be of invaluable use to those interested in capacity building Contract Farming Charles Eaton, Andrew Shepherd, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2001-01-01 Contract farming can be defined as an agreement between farmers and processing and or marketing firms for the production and supply of agricultural products under forward agreements Interest in contract farming is expanding The purpose of this guide is to provide advice first to management of existing contract farming companies on how to improve their operations second to companies that are considering starting such ventures on the preconditions and management actions necessary for success and third to government officials seeking to promote new contract farming operations or monitor existing operations The guide describes in detail the general modus operandi internal functions and monitoring mechanisms of contract farming It emphasises that sustainable contract farming arrangements are only possible when the various parties see themselves involved in a long term partnership The Role of Smallholder Farms in Food and Nutrition Security Sergio Gomez y Paloma, Laura Riesgo, Kamel Louhichi, 2020-05-14 This open access book discusses the current role of smallholders in connection with food security and poverty reduction in developing countries It addresses the opportunities they enjoy and the constraints they face by analysing the availability access to and utilization of production factors Due to the relevance of smallholder farms enhancing their production capacities and economic and social resilience could produce positive impacts on food security and nutrition at a number of levels In addition to the role of small farmers as food suppliers the book considers their role as consumers and their level of nutrition security It investigates the link between agriculture and nutrition in order to better understand how agriculture affects human health and dietary patterns Given the importance of smallholdings strategies to increase their productivity are essential to improving food and nutrition security as well as food diversity Cooperatives, the State, and Corporate Power in African Export Agriculture Karin Wedig, 2019-02-22 Agriculture is a major contributor to Africa's GDP the region

s biggest source of employment and its largest food producer However agricultural productivity remains low and buyer driven global value chains offer few opportunities for small producers to upgrade into higher value added activities In recent years the revival of Africa s cooperatives has been celebrated by governments and international donors as a pathway towards inclusive agricultural development and this book explores the strengths but also the issues which surround these cooperatives The book scrutinizes the neoliberal ideal of economic prosperity arising through the operation of liberalized labor markets by illuminating the discriminatory nature of Uganda s informal labor relations It points to the role of cooperatives as a potential instrument of progressive change in African export agriculture where large numbers of small producers depend on casual wage work in addition to farming In contrast to the portrayal advanced by some governments and rarely questioned by donors of an unproblematic co existence of small producers collective action and big capital interests the author calls for a re politicized debate on the Social and Solidarity Economy As part of this she highlights the adverse political and economic conditions faced by African cooperatives including intense international competition in agricultural processing inadequate access to infrastructure and services and at times antagonistic state cooperative relations Supported by wide ranging interdisciplinary evidence including new ethnographic survey and interview data this book shows how cooperatives may be co opted by both the state and corporations in a discourse that ignores structural inequalities in value chains and emphasizes poverty reduction over economic and political empowerment It provides a critique of New Institutional Economics as a framework for understanding how institutions shape redistribution and develops a political economy approach to explore the conditions for structural change in African export agriculture

Innovative Institutions, Public Policies And Private Strategies For Agro-enterprise Development Ralph D Christy, Carlos A Da Silva, Nomathemba Mhlanga, Krisztina Tihanyi, Edward Mabaya, 2014-09-12 In an effort to promote agro enterprises and agro industries as viable forms of inclusive development the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO and The Cornell International Institute for Food Agriculture and Development CIIFAD in collaboration with the International Association of Agricultural Economists IAAE organized an international symposium on the topic Innovative Institutions Public Policies and Private Strategies for Inclusive Agro Enterprise Development as part of the Triennial Meetings of the IAAE held in Foz do Igua u Brazil in August 2012 This book contains the major papers presented at the symposium which feature a wide range of country and regional experiences and examine the influence of markets and technology transfer to agro enterprises on food security poverty and economic growth The contributions also identify alternative market access strategies for sustainable economic development This volume will enrich existing knowledge of agro enterprises as a channel for promoting inclusive growth and reducing poverty levels across developing and emerging markets

The Political Ecology of Bananas Lawrence S. Grossman, 2000-11-09 This study of banana contract farming in the Eastern Caribbean explores the forces that shape contract farming enterprises everywhere capital the state and the environment Employing the increasingly popular framework of political ecology which highlights the dynamic linkages between political economic forces and human environment relationships Lawrence Grossman provides a new perspective on the history and contemporary trajectory of the Windward Islands banana industry He reveals in rich detail the myriad impacts of banana production on the peasant laborers of St Vincent and the Grenadines Grossman challenges the conventional wisdom on three interrelated issues central to contract farming and political ecology First he analyzes the process of deskilling and the associated significance of control by capital and the state over peasant labor Second he investigates the impacts of contract farming for export on domestic food production and food import dependency And third he examines the often misunderstood problem of pesticide misuse Grossman s findings lead to a reconsideration of broader debates concerning the relevance of research on industrial restructuring and globalization for the analysis of agrarian change Most important his work emphasizes that we must pay greater attention to the fundamental significance of the environmental rootedness of agriculture in studies of political ecology and contract farming

The ^AOxford Handbook of Land Politics Saturnino M. Borrás, Jennifer C. Franco, 2025-08-29 Access to land in all its multiple meanings is necessarily diverse complex and contentious and facilitating and maintaining such access constitutes a mosaic of social relations and institutional instruments rather than the minimalist and simplistic reduction of land to land property that in turn tends to be interpreted always as individual private property The Oxford Handbook of Land Politics offers heterodox analytical tools to help the reader make sense of the complexity of the politics of land
