 A bright spring day was fading into evening High overhead in the clear heavens small rosy clouds seemed hardly to move across the sky but to be sinking into its depths of blue In a handsome house in one of the outlying streets of the government town of O it was in the year 1842 two women were sitting at an open window one was about fifty the other an old lady of seventy The name of the former was Marya Dmitrievna Kalitin Her husband a shrewd determined man of obstinate bilious temperament had been dead for ten years He had been a provincial public prosecutor noted in his own day as a successful man of business He had received a fair education and had been to the university but having been born in narrow circumstances he realized early in life the necessity of pushing his own way in the world and making money It had been a love match on Marya Dmitrievna's side He was not bad looking was clever and could be very agreeable when he chose Marya Dmitrievna Pesto that was her maiden name had lost her parents in childhood She spent some years in a boarding school in Moscow and after leaving school lived on the family estate of Pokrovskoe about forty miles from O with her aunt and her elder brother This brother soon after obtained a post in Petersburg and made them a scanty allowance He treated his aunt and sister very shabbily till his sudden death cut short his career Marya Dmitrievna inherited Pokrovskoe but she did not live there long Two years after her marriage with Kalitin who succeeded in winning her heart in a few days Pokrovskoe was exchanged for another estate which yielded a much larger income but was utterly unattractive and had no house At the same time Kalitin took a house in the town of O in which he and his wife took up their permanent abode There was a large garden round the house which on one side looked out upon the open country away from the town The Harvard Classics Shelf

The Harvard Classics All 20 Volumes in One Edition assembles a magnificent tapestry of literary works that span genre form and era. This anthology encompasses a broad spectrum of themes from the intense social examinations of Charles Dickens to the dark psychological explorations of Edgar Allan Poe, addressing complex human emotions and societal dynamics. It features romanticism, realism, and the burgeoning innovation of modern storytelling, providing readers with selected pieces that symbolize pivotal moments in literary evolution. In this comprehensive collection, readers will encounter experimental narratives, poignant critiques, and profound explorations of the human condition, making it a work of scholarly grandeur and cultural significance. The diversity of authors, ranging from Victor Hugo to Fyodor Dostoevsky, forms a cross-section of literary history, each contributing distinct voices and perspectives. These authors, hailing from various countries and literary traditions, utilize their unique cultural lenses to bring life to the collection's overarching themes. The anthology aligns with influential movements such as romanticism, realism, and naturalism, using storytelling as a mirror to the societal and historical contexts from which the works emerged. This convergence of literary giants harmonizes the anthology, offering readers a rich tapestry of insights and narratives. Through its extensive collection, the anthology invites readers on an enriching journey across narratives that have shaped the literary world. It presents an unparalleled opportunity to explore a wide range of human experiences, artistic styles, and thematic depths, encouraging intellectual growth and fostering a dialogue that transcends national and temporal boundaries. Ideal for students, scholars, and literary enthusiasts, Harvard Classics serves as both an educational resource and a profound exploration into the diverse realms of literary masterpieces. Immerse yourself in this curated collection that promises to enlighten, captivate, and inspire through its multifaceted exploration of timeless literature.

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer Mark Twain, 2006-05-16 This classic novel of childhood is set in fictional St. Petersburg, a town based on Mark Twain's hometown of Hannibal, Missouri. Twain's recounting of Tom Sawyer's many escapades is by turns nostalgic, satiric, wise, and hilarious. While this novel is often considered mainly as the precursor to Twain's great work, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, it is abundantly worth considering for its own deft and loving transformation of autobiography into fiction. In addition to the full text of the novel, based on the first American edition, complete with a selection of the original illustrations by True Williams, this Broadview edition provides a wide range of appendices that place the novel in the context of 1840s rural America as well as 1870s literary America. These include materials on the composition and marketing of Tom

Sawyer selections from other boy books of the period and historical documents relating to temperance children's literature and schools

Intimate Reading Jessica Barr, 2020-04-20 Intimate Reading: Textual Encounters in Medieval Women's Visions and Vitae explores the ways that women mystics sought to make their books into vehicles for the reader's spiritual transformation. Jessica Barr argues that the cognitive work of reading these texts was meant to stimulate intensely personal responses and that the very materiality of the book can produce an intimate encounter with God. She thus explores the differences between mystics' biographies and their self presentation, analyzing as well the complex rhetorical moves that medieval women writers employ to render their accounts more effective. This new volume is structured around five case studies. Chapters consider the biographies of 13th century holy women from Liège: the writings of Margery Kempe, Gertrude of Helfta, Mechthild of Magdeburg, Marguerite Porete, and Julian of Norwich. At the heart of Intimate Reading is the question of how reading works: what it means to enter imaginatively and intellectually into the words of another. The volume showcases the complexity of medieval understandings of the work of reading, deepening our perception of the written word's capacity to signify something that lies even beyond rational comprehension.

Criticism from the Heart Kristina Nelson, 2005-09 Criticism from the Heart is an interesting read covering a variety of authors and their most famous works. Nelson does a captivating job of analyzing some of the most famous writers in literary history, providing her own insights and analysis regarding their writings. This book is a must have and a must read for anybody interested in the study of literature, any literature student, any literature professor, or anybody simply interested in learning more about literature.
