So Long Until Tomorrow From Quaker Hill To Kathmandu:

So Long Until Tomorrow Lowell Thomas, 1977 Lowell Thomas takes the reader to many remote places in the world including central Siberia New Guinea the South Pole an ice island three hundred miles from the North Pole Fallen Giants Maurice Isserman, Stewart Angus Weaver, Dee Molenaar, 2010-01-01 In the first comprehensive history of Himalayan mountaineering in 50 years the authors offer detailed original accounts of the most significant climbs since the 1890s and they compellingly evoke the social and cultural worlds that gave rise to those expeditions The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence George W. Wolfe, 2010-09-29 Religion and violence the two concepts seem incompatible given the emphasis in religion on virtue love forgiveness and compassion Yet many scriptures contain martial images and stories of god inspired military conquest The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence confronts this theological contradiction arguing that martial images and symbols found in religious texts are often meant to be interpreted as metaphors for an inner spiritual struggle and should never be used as a justification for war The analysis is undertaken from an interfaith perspective that explains many of the paradoxical concepts found in theories of nonviolence Professor Wolfe also presents a compelling case for the sustainability paradigm and for offering peace education and interreligious dialogue on a global scale He probes the scriptures of the world proving that nonviolence is a shared virtue and that the real enemy we must battle against and ultimately defeat is actually within us An excellent introduction to spiritually based principled nonviolence Professor Wolfe's blend of different wisdom traditions is especially useful Dr Michael Nagler Professor Emeritus University of California at Berkeley George Wolfe has put the blame for proliferating violence in the world where it belongs on the crass interpretation of religion A thought provoking book Arun Gandhi President Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence Truly an enlightening book Judy OBannon Former First Lady of Indiana The Biographical Encyclopedia of American Radio Christopher H. Sterling, Cary O'Dell, 2013-05-13 The Biographical Encyclopedia of American Radio presents the very best biographies of the internationally acclaimed three volume Encyclopedia of Radio in a single volume It includes more than 200 biographical entries on the most important and influential American radio personalities writers producers directors newscasters and network executives With 23 new biographies and updated entries throughout this volume covers key figures from radio's past and present including Glenn Beck Jessie Blayton Fred Friendly Arthur Godfrey Bob Hope Don Imus Rush Limbaugh Ryan Seacrest Laura Schlesinger Red Skelton Nina Totenberg Walter Winchell and many more Scholarly but accessible this encyclopedia provides an unrivaled guide to the voices behind radio for students and general readers alike Richard Aldington and Lawrence of Arabia Fred D. Crawford, 1998 If you plan to portray a national icon in less than heroic terms you had better be prepared for a fight as Richard Aldington learned even before the publication of his 1955 biography Lawrence of Arabia A Biographical Enquiry Fred D Crawford provides the first examination of all major parties and points of view embroiled in the controversy generated by Aldington's biography of T E Lawrence In two years of research Aldington made major discoveries including the extent to which Lawrence had cooperated with Lowell Thomas Robert Graves and B H Liddell Hart in the creation of the Lawrence legend For this and other reasons Aldington concluded that Lawrence was a charlatan a poseur and a fraud Upon learning of Aldington s antagonism to Lawrence a year before Aldington s book appeared a powerful group including B H Liddell Hart Robert Graves A W Lawrence and other Lawrence partisans worked behind the scenes to suppress and denigrate Aldington s biography These attempts Crawford notes reveal a great deal about how private interests can determine what the public is allowed to read

The Letters and Diaries of Colonel John Hart Caughey, 1944-1945 Roger B. Jeans, 2018-06-18 Colonel John Hart Caughey a US Army war plans officer stationed in the Chinese Nationalist capital of Chungking was an eyewitness to the battle for China in the final months of the war 1944 45 and beyond when he rose to become head of the Theater Planning Section In frequent letters to his wife as well as in several diaries he chronicled the US military s role in wartime China especially his life as an American planner when he was subject to military censorship Previous accounts of the China Theater have largely neglected the role of the War Department planners stationed in Chungking many of whom were Caughey s colleagues and friends He also penned colorful descriptions of life in wartime China which vividly remind the reader how far China has come in a mere seventy odd years In addition his letters and diaries deepen our understanding of several of the American leaders in this Asian war including China Theater commander Albert C Wedemeyer Fourteenth Air Force chief Claire L Chennault former commander of the Flying Tigers US ambassador to wartime China Patrick J Hurley famed Time Life reporter Theodore White OSS director William Wild Bill Donovan Louis Mountbatten Supreme Commander of the Southeast Asia Command and Jonathan Wainwright who was in command when the American forces in the Philippines surrendered in 1942 and who stayed for a few days at Caughey s Chungking residence on his way home after several years as a Japanese POW in Manchuria In his writings Caughey also revealed a more appealing side of Wedemeyer whose extreme political opinions in the postwar era probably cost him the post of US Army chief of staff By making Caughey a member of his planning staff Wedemeyer made possible an extraordinary experience for the young colonel during the war Caughey also rubbed shoulders with Nationalist leader Chiang Kai shek and traveled to the battlefields in Southeast China with the commander in chief of the Nationalist Army He Yingqin along with a number of other Chinese and American soldiers Following the Japanese surrender Caughey chronicled the resumption of the power struggle between the Chinese Nationalists and the Chinese Communists largely postponed during the conflict Shortly after the war he had a brief encounter with the number two Communist leader Zhou Enlai whom he was to get to know much better during the Marshall Mission to China

So Long Until Tomorrow Lowell Thomas,1978 Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton,2011-08-15

In all of journalism nowhere are the stakes higher than in foreign news gathering For media owners it is the most difficult type of reporting to finance for editors the hardest to oversee Correspondents roaming large swaths of the planet must acquire expertise that home based reporters take for granted facility with the local language for instance or an understanding of local cultures Adding further to the challenges they must put news of the world in context for an audience with little experience and often limited interest in foreign affairs a task made all the more daunting because of the consequence to national security

In Journalism s Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton a historian and former foreign correspondent provides a sweeping and definitive history of American foreign news reporting from its inception to the present day and chronicles the economic and technological advances that have influenced overseas coverage as well as the cavalcade of colorful personalities who shaped readers perceptions of the world across two centuries From the colonial era when newspaper printers hustled down to wharfs to collect mail and periodicals from incoming ships to the ongoing multimedia press coverage of the Iraq War Hamilton explores journalism s constant and not always successful efforts at dishing the foreign news as James Gordon Bennett put it in the mid nineteenth century to describe his approach in the New York Herald He details the highly partisan coverage of the French Revolution the early emergence of special correspondents and the challenges of organizing their efforts the profound impact of the non yellow press in the run up to the Spanish American War the increasingly sophisticated machinery of propaganda and censorship that surfaced during World War I and the golden age of foreign correspondence during the interwar period when outlets for foreign news swelled and a large number of experienced independent journalists circled the globe From the Nazis intimidation of reporters to the ways in which American popular opinion shaped coverage of Communist revolution and the Vietnam War Hamilton covers every aspect of delivering foreign news to American doorsteps Along the way Hamilton singles out a fascinating cast of characters among them Victor Lawson the overlooked proprietor of the Chicago Daily News who pioneered the concept of a foreign news service geared to American interests Henry Morton Stanley one of the first reporters to generate news on his own with his 1871 expedition to East Africa to find Livingstone and Jack Belden a forgotten brooding figure who exemplified the best in combat reporting Hamilton details the experiences of correspondents editors owners publishers and network executives as well as the political leaders who made the news and the technicians who invented ways to transmit it Their stories bring the narrative to life in arresting detail and make this an indispensable book for anyone wanting to understand the evolution of foreign news gathering Amid the steep drop in the number of correspondents stationed abroad and the recent decline of the newspaper industry many fear that foreign reporting will soon no longer exist But as Hamilton shows in this magisterial work traditional correspondence survives alongside a new type of reporting Journalism s Roving Eye offers a keen understanding of the vicissitudes in foreign news an understanding imperative to better seeing what lies ahead Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Lawrence of Arabia and American Culture Joel C. Hodson, 1995-10-30 Departing from prior scholarship on T E Lawrence this work examines the extent of Anglo American cultural interplay and the popular cultural machinery involved in the manufacture of the Lawrence of Arabia legend The book features several unpublished or rare photographs and draws upon previously unpublished manuscript material business letters and supporting documents to recreate the origins of the popular legend of Lawrence of Arabia American Heritage , 1980 Annual Obituary, 1981
